FIRST EDITION.

TWELVE O'CLOCK M.

FORTIETH CONGRESS.

President's Veto of the Omnibus Bill—The Bill Reconsidered and Again Passed by Both Houses—The Legislative Appropriation and Tax Bills Further Considered.

WASHINGTON, June 25, 1868.

SENATE.

The Senate met at two o'clock.

After some unimportant business Mr. THAYER offered a resolution directing the Secretary of War to inform the Senate what amount of Government supplies belonging to the Quartermaster and Commissary Departments was lost on the Missouri River, below Omaha, in transit, by sinking or other injury during 1866, '67 and '68. Adopted.

Mr. EDMUNDS called up the bill providing for the removal of certain causes from the State Courts to the United States Courts.

The question was on a substitute by the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. DAVIS asked the bill to be laid over until the Senators examine it.

Mr. EDMUNDS explained that it simply aids United States officers or Marshals to remove causes in which they are sued from States to United States Courts.

On motion of Mr. MORRILL, of Maine, the bill was laid aside, and the order of the day, the legislative appropriation bill, taken up.

The question was on an amendment offered by Mr. SHERMAN, from the Committee on Finances, appropriating $150,000 for temporary clerks for the Treasury Department, and providing the Secretary of the Treasury may classify them.

Further debate on the point ensued, during which the President's veto message was received from the House, and the omnibus bill passed over it by a vote of thirty-five to eight.

Mr. DAVIS having first delivered an eulogium on the President, ranking him as one of the noblest characters of the age.

The consideration of the legislative appropriation was resumed, and the amendment adopted—yeas 27, nays 14.

Mr. SHERMAN offered an amendment, from the Committee on Finance, providing for the discontinuation of the Globe contract for publishing debates in Congress on the 4th of March next, and for inquiry by the Committee on Printing into the cost, &c., of other methods of doing the same, which, after some discussion, was adopted.

Amendments regulating the publication of official advertisements in the District of Columbia, intended to put a stop to certain recent abuses of the law, were reported by Mr. SHERMAN, slightly amended by Mr. EDMUNDS, and agreed to.

Mr. SHERMAN offered another amendment, fixing the salaries of the Comptroller of the Treasury and Commissioner of Customs at $4,500 each, solicitor, auditor, register and supervising architect of Treasury $4,000 each, an increase of about one thousand each.

Mr. STEWART gave notice of an amendment increasing the salary of the Commissioner of General Land Office.

Mr. SHERMAN offered an amendment increasing the pay of night watchmen in the Treasury from $720 to $900. Agreed to.

Other amendments were adopted increasing the salary of the Assistant Treasurer, at Charleston, to $4,000, and Naval Judge Advocate to $3,500.

Mr. CONKLING introduced a bill to provide for the erection of a Post Office in New York. Referred.

Adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

A large number of Senate bills were referred.

Numerous petitions for protective duties were presented.

Resolutions were adopted calling on the President for information relative to the imprisonment of naturalized Americans in England.

The Senate amendment dividing Illinois into two Judicial Districts was concurred in.

Mr. SCHENCK made an appeal to the members, especially Republican members, to be in regular attendance during the consideration of the tax bill.

The House then went into Committee on the tax bill.

Mr. PRICE'S amendment, offered last evening, was adopted—68 to 38.

Mr. SCHENCK moved a verbal amendment, the effect of which would be to annul the vote just taken, but the amendment was rejected—34 to 77.

Mr. BUTLER moved to strike out section fifty-first, regulating the warehouse system. He complained bitterly of the West striking down the shipping interests of the East, and also one of the largest items of export trade.

Mr. JUDD replied that the West only desired export to be regulated in such a manner that it should not be the means of defrauding the Government of its revenue.

After further discussion by Messrs. Schenck, Logan, Farnsworth and Allison, the motion was rejected.

Mr. BOUTWELL moved as a substitute for the fifty-first section a provision allowing drawbacks of sixty cents a gallon on imported alcohol and rum.

Mr. MOORHEAD moved to reduce the drawback from sixty to fifty cents. Agreed to—62 to 42.

Mr. BOUTWELL'S substitute was then agreed to.

On motion of Mr. SCHENCK, sections fifty-two and fifty-three were struck out.

No amendments were made to section fifty-fifth, which simply provides for the withdrawal of spirits from warehouses.

Sections fifty-fifth, fifty-sixth, fifty-seventh, fifty-eighth, fifty-ninth, sixtieth and sixty-first were stricken out.

Section sixty-second having been read, providing that all distilled spirits in any bonded warehouse shall within one hundred days after the passage of the act be withdrawn from such warehouse and taxes paid on the same,

Mr. SCHENCK stated he would at the proper time move an amendment requiring whisky in bond to pay a special tax of four dollars per barrel.

Mr. O'NEILL moved to strike out section sixty-second, and made an argument to prove how unjust it was to persons who honestly invested in the whisky in bonded houses to require them to pay a tax within one hundred days.

The Committee rose at 2:30 and the Speaker presented the following:

To the House of Representatives:—In returning to the House of Representatives, in which it originated, a bill entitled "an act to admit the States of North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Louisiana and Florida to representation in Congress," I do not deem it necessary to state at length the reasons which constrain me to withhold my approval. I will not, therefore, undertake at this time to re-open the discussion upon the grave constitutional questions involved in the act of March 2d, 1867, and the acts supplementary thereto, in pursuance of which it is claimed in the preamble of this bill that these States have framed and adopted Constitutions of State government. Nor will I repeat my objections contained in my message of the 20th inst., returning without my signature the bill to admit to representation the State of Arkansas, and which are equally applicable to the pending message. Like the bill recently passed in reference to Arkansas, this bill supercedes the plain and simple mode prescribed by the Constitution for the admission of States by the respective Houses of Senators and Representatives from the several States. It assumes authority over six States of the Union which has never been duly delegated to Congress, or is even warranted by previous unconstitutional legislation upon the subject of restoration. It imposes conditions which are in derogation of the equal rights of the States, and is founded upon a theory which is subversive of the fundamental principles of the Government. In the case of Alabama it violates the plighted faith of Congress, by forcing upon that State a Constitution which was rejected by the people according to the express terms of an act of Congress, requiring that a majority of the registered electors should vote upon the question of its ratification.

For these objections, and many others that might be presented, I cannot approve this bill, and therefore return it for the action of Congress required in such cases by the Federal Constitution.

[Signed] ANDREW JOHNSON.

Washington, D. C., June 25, 1868.

The Message having been read by the SPEAKER stated the question to be "Will the House, on reconsideration, agree to the passage of this bill?"

Mr. STEVENS, Pa., moved the previous question.

Mr. ROBINSON inquired whether it was in order to move that the message be prined and laid over for further consideration?

The SPEAKER said it would be if the previous question were not seconded.

A vote was taken, and resulted yeas 105, nays 30—a strict party vote.

The SPEAKER stated two-thirds having voted in the affirmative, the bill was again passed and would be transmitted with the objections of the President to the Senate for similar reconsideration.

The House in Committee resumed the consideration of the tax bill, the question being on Mr. O'NEILL'S motion to strike out the sixty-second section.

Mr. O'NEILL modified his motion, and moved the following substitute for the section: All distilled spirits in any bonded warehouse shall on and after the passage of this act pay, in addition to the taxes unpaid on the same, one per cent. a month on the amount of said tax while remaining in any bonded warehouse as aforesaid.

After a long discussion, Mr. KELLY moved to amend the section by extending to six months the time for paying the tax on whisky in bonded warehouses.

This was agreed to—53 against 48.

Mr. O'NEILL'S substitute was then rejected.

Mr. STEWART moved to add to the section a provision that spirits forfeited shall be sold or disposed of for the benefit of the United States, in such manner as shall be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury. Agreed to.

Mr. INGERSOLL moved to add a provision that it shall be sold at public sale and to the highest bidder for cash. Rejected.

The section as amended reads as follows;

SEC. 62. That all distilled spirits in any bonded warehouse shall, within six months after the passage of this act, be withdrawn from such warehouse and the taxes paid on the same, and the casks and packages containing said spirit shall be marked and stamped and be subject in all respects to the same seizure as if manufactured after the passage of this act; and any distilled spirits remaining in any bonded warehouse for a period of more than six months after the passage of this act, shall be forfeited to the United States and shall be sold or disposed of for the benefit of the same in such manner as shall be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury.

No amendments were offered to sections sixty-three or sixty-four, requiring returns to be made by owners of spirits not in bonded warehouses, exceeding fifty gallons in quantity.

Section sixty-fifth, imposing special taxes, having been reached, Mr. SCHENCK, by instruction of the Committee of Ways and Means, moved to add to the first paragraph, which refers to distillers, a provision that a tax of four dollars a barrel shall be collected from the owner of distilled spirits, to be paid on withdrawal thereof from bonded warehouse.

Mr. BOUTWELL moved to impose also an additional tax of thirty-one and a half cents per gallon. Rejected.

Mr. SCHENCK'S amendment was agreed to.

Mr. BOUTWELL proposed to allow on exported rum and alcohol an additional drawback of thirteen and a third cents per gallon. Rejected.

Evening Session.—The Committee of the Whole resumed the consideration of the Tax bill.

Various amendments were offered to section 65th, and all rejected, except one that the payment of any special license tax on liquor dealers shall not authorize the business to be carried on contrary to State or municipal laws, and another exempting from tax dealers in tobacco whose annual sales do not exceed one hundred dollars.

Section sixty-sixth, imposing taxes on tobacco and snuff, was read, and several amendments for the reduction of the tax offered and rejected.

Several amendments were offered to section 67th, regulating the mode in which tobacco and snuff are to be prepared for sale. All were rejected.

Amendments were offered to section 68th, regulating duties on tobacco manufacturers. Rejected.

No amendments to sections from 69th to 108th, which contain rules and regulations to govern the manufacturing of and dealing in tobacco, snuff and cigars. This disposes of all the sections that relate to whisky or tobacco, leaving only the sections in relation to banks and bankers to be disposed of. These occupy only five printed pages.

Mr. PIKE proposed a tax of ten per cent. on interest on United States bonds, but withdrew it until the section comes under discussion to-morrow.

The Committee at a quarter past eleven rose and the House adjourned.

The Mississippi Election.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

JACKSON, June 25.—The election in Mississippi as far as heard from, gives the Democrats 8,000 majority. Returns come in slowly. The Democrats are sanguine of success, while the Radicals claim that base frauds are being perpetrated. Full reports cannot be obtained for several days.

Vessel Sunk—Five Persons Drowned.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW ORLEANS, June 25.—The steamer Selma, with cattle for New Orleans, sunk at the mouth of Brazos River yesterday. The captain, J. E. Thomas, steward, John McLean, two Chinese cooks, and one passenger, name unknown, were drowned.

Debate in the English House of Lords on the Irish Church Question—Exciting Scenes—Return of an Abyssinian Prisoner—Unveiling of the Statue of Luther at Worms.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

GREAT BRITAIN.

LONDON, June 25.—Midnight.—In the House of Commons this evening the Irish Reform Bill was read for the third time and passed.

The Government grant annually to the Presbyterian churches of Ireland was voted.

The new Post Convention with the United States is still pending in the House. The Government is endeavoring to make uniform terms with all Mail Steamship Companies.

In the House of Lords to-night a great crowd was present, as an exciting debate on the Irish Church question was expected. Many members of the House were on the floor and the galleries were packed. Great interest, almost approaching feverish excitement, was manifested throughout the proceedings. Lord Granville moved the second reading of the Irish Church appointments suspension bill. He said Fenianism had been received with approval and acquiescence by the middle and lower classes in Ireland. The discontent in that country was general. Firmness and decision were necessary to put down seditious movements; but long before the bill was proposed Mr. Gladstone had declared to himself and others that the Irish question must be settled, even if cost the Whigs their offices. The bill has passed the House of Commons by an enormous majority. If a similar suspensory law was proper in Jamaica, it was still more proper in Ireland, where the Anglicans numbered less than 750,000, while the Roman Catholics numbered 4,500,000, and where there was but one diocese in which the Anglicans exceeded in number one-fourth of the population. Thus the Irish Church was a failure as a missionary establishment. It was a remnant of old conflicts. To call its disestablishment a sacrilege was absurd, as its revenues had belonged successively to several different sects. Wheatley had argued that it was the duty of the State to take possession of benefactions which did not fulfill their object. Other authorities took the same view. The Church of England would gain by this measure. The Irish were not indifferent to the reforms of 1866, yet riots and other demonstrations obliged the Tories to pass a Reform bill. He showed that the passage of the Reserves act had contented the Canadas. The condition of Ireland was painful to contemplate. The writ of habeas corpus remained suspended. The Government did not dare to furnish arms to its volunteers there. Sooner or later the Church must separate from the State. Lord Palmerston said Englishmen will never concede until concession becomes surrender. Why should not this bill be passed? It was useful, practical, and its passage would prove that Parliament was ready to treat the Irish case justly.

Lord Grey moved the next reading of the bill be postponed six months. He had always condemned the Irish Church Establishment as an outrage, but he considered the present measure ill-timed, inadequate and indefinite.

Lord Malmesbury complained of the way in which the measure had been sprung and urged upon Parliament. He quoted from last year's speeches of Mr. Gladstone, which he said gave the Government reason to expect that the contest would not be brought on at so early a day, and it was unjust to the Government to press it. The Government, however, was anxious to reform the Irish Church, but this action precluded any action its part. He objected to the measure, because no hint had been given as to the application of the spoils of the Establishment. The only excuse for the bill was that it was intended to pacify Ireland. But such a result was improbable. The destruction of the Irish Church would tend to sever the union of England and Ireland.

Lord Clarendon thought Lord Malmesbury was inconsistent in opposing this bill. Two years ago he denounced the Irish Establishment as the Church of the few, and proposed to divide its funds among all the different sects.

Lord Clarendon continued by declaring that the Irish Church had failed to carry out its objects and its existence was an injury to England throughout the world. He feared the rejection of the bill by the Lords and deplored the effect such action would have on Ireland.

The Archbishop of Canterbury opposed the bill, because he believed its purpose was not the redress of grievances but the rupture of union.

Lord Derby said if the Lords were ready to disregard and sacrifice all Protestant interests at the bidding of a would-be Minister and of the majority of an expiring House, he would only protest against the measure as an act of spoilation. He had always supported the Papists in their struggles to gain their rights, but he would not suffer aggression. The bill would only foster discord in Ireland. He protested against this attack on the rights of property, which would hereafter be extended to England. He said he knew his course was unpopular, but he would never seek popularity for its sake only.

Lord Kimberly said this was the first step which had been taken to pacify Ireland. He deprecated some allusions which had been made to the oath taken by the Queen on her accession to the throne. Her Majesty acted on the advice of her Ministers. The argument concerning the violation of the rights of property would be found to cut both ways. The Catholics had never recognized the transfer of their church property in ancient times to the Anglicans.

The Bishop of London said he was willing to make concessions to conciliate Ireland, but this bill would not effect such conciliation. He did not believe the people of Ireland desired the change which it contemplated.

At a late hour the debate was adjourned.

LONDON, June 25.—M. Rassan, formerly Her Majesty's Consul in Abyssinia, and one of the party held so long in captivity by the late King Theodorus, has arrived in England, and to-day had a reception at King's College, where he was heartily cheered and warmly welcomed by a large assemblage of citizens of London.

GERMANY.

WORMS, June 25.—The statue of Martin Luther was inaugurated to-day in the presence of a vast concourse of people from all parts of Europe and America. The King of Prussia and Crown Prince witnessed the scene. When the statue was unveiled artillery fired, and as soon as the applause subsided a hymn was sung by several thousand voices with immense effect.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

LONDON, June 25.—Increase of specie in the Bank of England £552,000. Consols for money 94⅝@94¾, account 94¾. Bonds 73¼. Illinois 101¾. Erie 45¼.

ANTWERP, June 25.—Petrolum 46¾.

NEW YORK.

Speech by Horatio Seymour.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, June 25.—Governor Seymour addressed the Jackson Central Association this evening. He said in every part of our land are proofs of the wide spread change in political feeling. While the ablest Republicans refuse to go on with a party which tramples upon the judiciary, usurps powers, and is upsetting all ideas of political morality and unhinging all the business machinery of the land, we are laboring under some embarrassment from the great volume of the change in our favor. Those who are rallying around the standard of constitutional rights have heretofore held conflicting views with regard to events for the past few years, and the question is how can we see this great majority in the field so arranged that they can drive out of place the disciplined and desperate horde of office holders who now misgovern the country. This is the only problem to be settled. The American people are disgusted with the conduct of the Congressional party. Can we mark out a policy which will unite the majority under one standard.? This can only be done by a thoughtful, forbearing, unselfish course. At the same time we must be outspoken, and confront all questions which perplex us. Men look forward with hope to the action of the National Convention on the Fourth of July. I shall not speak of the candidates. Let the claims of each be considered in a courteous and manly spirit, and let us take care no personal partizanship shall draw us aside from our duty to our country. We should support with hearty zeal every upholder of constitutional rights. It will be, in the present state of our country, an unholy thing to go into the July Convention with any purpose which shall not have in view the rescue of our Government from the men who now have it in hand. He then proceeded to reiterate his views formerly expressed on the financial question, opposing both contraction and unwise issues and urging the restoration of the National credit, tainted by the wastefulness and profligacy of the party in power. He contended that five hundred millions of the thousand millions of money spent by the Government since the surrender of Lee could have been devoted to the payment of the National debt, carrying by the proof of good faith the national credit to the highest point, while new bonds at a lower rate of interest would have reduced our taxes and brought our currency to the value of specie.

Mr. Seymour also spoke in favor of general amnesty and restoration of suffrage to all whites in the South, which would obviate the keeping up of military despotism to feed idle negroes, to break down the judiciary, to shackle the executive, and to destroy all constitutional rights. He closed with an appeal to the whole country to, with one united effort, drive from power the common enemies of liberty, honor, rights and constitutional laws. The speech was much applauded.

LIBEL DISMISSED.

Judge Nelson to-day rendered a decision dismissing the libel against the steamship Meteor, seized last year for a violation of the neutrality laws, it being alleged she was sold to the Chilian Government.

RAILROAD INJUNCTION.

Arguments were heard in the Supreme Court to-day on the question whether the injunction against the recent issue of dividends by the Northwestern Railway should be made perpetual. Defendants argue that the laws of Illinois and Wisconsin sustain them and that the Courts here have no jurisdiction.

WHISKY DEALER SENTENCED.

Hartman, convicted of conspiracy to remove whisky illicitly, was to-day sentenced to pay $5,000 fine and ten days imprisonment.

ANOTHER COUNTERFEITER PARDONED.

Francisco Buhagler, convicted of altering counterfeit fractional currency in February, has been pardoned by the President at the solicitation of the Italian Minister and others, on condition of leaving the country.

ROBBED AND MURDERED.

A young man, named Geo. Schober, was robbed and murdered in Hudson City this morning by unknown parties.

VARIOUS MATTERS.

Michael J. Canty and Chas. Burke have been convicted of being accessory to the murder of Ellen Hicks, in the town of West Chester, in 1866.

The annual regetta of the Brooklyn Yacht Club to-day was participated in by yachts belonging to the New York, Atlantic, Jersey City and Bayonne Clubs. Five schooners and sixteen first and sixteen second class sloops were entered. The prizes were won by the schooner Alice, sloops Agnes Quivive, Mattie and others.

Eligibility of Colored Men to Congress.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

RICHMOND, June 25.—The following letter was written by Senator Sumner to a citizen of Norfolk:

Senate Chamber, June 22.—Dear Sir:—I have your letter of the 18th in reference to the eligibility of a colored man to Congress. I know of no ground on which he could be excluded from his seat if duly elected, and I should welcome the election of a competent representative of the colored race to either House of Congress as a final triumph of the cause of equal rights. Until this step is taken our success is incomplete.

Yours, truly,

CHAS. SUMNER.

River and Weather.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

LOUISVILLE, June 25.—River falling with 5 feet 10 inches in the canal. Weather clear and pleasant.

ST. LOUIS, June 25.—The weather is clear and pleasant.

Chicago Cattle Market.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CHICAGO, June 25.—Beef cattle dull and the demand is almost exclusively on local account at $6,62½a7,50 for fair to good steers. Hogs opened steady and more active but closed quiet.

—The President has sent a special agent to Georgia to inquire into the Ashburn murder.

THE CAPITAL.

[By Telegraph to Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, June 25, 1868.

AUSTRIAN MISSION.

The President to-day nominated Henry C. Smythe, Collector of New York, to be Minister to Austria.

SENATOR HENDERSON MARRIED.

Senator Henderson was married at noon to-day to Miss Mary Foote. Among the guests were the Missouri and Vermont delegations in Congress, the President of the United States, Secretaries McCulloch and Browning, Chief Justice Chase and members of both Houses of Congress.

TOPICS AND GOSSIP AT THE CAPITAL.

The President has nominated Henry A. Smithe, Collector of New York, as Minister to Austria.

Congressman Woodward, of Pa., ex-Chief Justice, is being pressed for the Russian Mission.

Gen. Rosecrans will be appointed Minister to Mexico, and will very likely be confirmed.

The bill discontinuing the Freedmen's Bureau after next January will no doubt be passed by both Houses during the present session.

The tax bill is to be completed and sent to the Senate next week. Legislation on the tariff question is postponed until December.

A project is on foot to raise from the colored people the sum of thirty thousand dollars to procure for General Howard a homestead in the South.

It is thought now that Congress can finish up business and adjourn by the middle of July. There is a general anxiety among the members to get home and go to work in the canvass.

The President transmitted to the Heuse a message vetoing the Omnibus Reconstruction bill. He says he does not deem it necessary to enter into a discussion of the merits of this bill, as it contains the same principles which were involved in the Arkansas bill. His objections to that bill, therefore, apply to this one with equal force. The message was very brief, and occupied about three minutes in reading. Mr. Stevens demanded the previous question on the passage of the bill over the veto, which cut off all debate. This was sustained, and the bill was then passed over the veto by a vote of one hundred and five ayes to thirty nays. The Senate also passed the bill over the veto.

International Convention of Young Mens' Christian Association.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

DETROIT, June 25.—The International Christian Association assembled at 9:30 a. m. The attendance was very large. The President alluded feelingly to the dangerous illness of Rev. Dr. Duffield. Various resolutions were offered and referred to the appropriate Committees. Among the resolutions was one protesting against the treatment received by George H. Stuart and Stephen H. Tyng, Jr., at the hands of the respective Ecclesiastical authorities; one sympathizing with the brethren lying under censure and suspension, whose only offense has been following the command of our Savior, that we should all be one, even as He is one with the Father; one to inquire into the practicability of a lecture bureau, under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association; one recommending week day prayer meeting.

The report of the Executive Committee was read. It states that ten local conventions had been held last year, against five the year previous; four associations own the buildings they occupy; seven have building funds amounting in all to $625,000; ninety have libraries, embracing over 60,000 volumes, valued at $100,000; the present membership is estimated at over 70,000; the Committee recommend that membership in Evangelical Churches be required previous to admission to active membership of the Association.

The morning exercises were closed with prayer by Rev. Mr. Tucker, of Troy.

The afternoon session was chiefly occupied in the discussion of the topic of the day, viz: How can the Association be kept steadfast in the promotion of practical piety among converted young men, and in efforts for the salvation of the unconverted within their reach? Short and interesting addresses thereon were made by Mr. Moody, Chicago, Mr. Caberry, California, Prof. Northrup, New Haven, and many others.

The Convention accepted an invitation to visit Michigan University, at Ann Arbor, on Monday.

Evening Session.—The church was densely crowded and hundreds were unable to obtain admission.

The question of duty to strangers was discussed by Messrs. Moody, Shraff, Price, and others.

The Convention resolved that pride, dignity and diffidence must be overcome and young men sought for.

The question of how to make boarding house Committees effective for good was discussed by Mr. Pond, of Boston.

Mr. Moody, of Chicago, spoke on outdoor meetings.

The venerable Rev. Dr. Duffield, who was stricken with paralysis while addressing the Convention to-day, is now lying at the point of death.

—Mr. John W. Devereux, an affidavit clerk of the Commissioners of Emigration, at Castle Garden, New York, recently resigned his position and has filed with Richard O'Gorman, Chairman of the Irish Emigration Society several very serious charges of maltreatment of emigrants against the Commissioners there.

—The master masons of New York, at a meeting on Wednesday, adopted unanimously resolutions to resist the eight hour system sought to be introduced, and to invite all other master mechanics to join in opposition. A more permanent organization was perfected, and the Executive Committee will meet every evening until the strike is ended.

—At the Masonic banquet at Philadelphia Wednesday night one thousand and sixty persons sat down to the tables. It was the most magnificent affair of the kind ever gotten up in the city. The Grand Masters of New York, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland, Indiana, Michigan and Missouri were present, and sat near Grand Master Vaux, of this Stats.

—Advices received from friends of Senator Grimes say that his recovery is now impossible. His memory is rapidly failing, and his mind is becoming so weak that he complains of not being able to think. He persists in his refusal to resign, preferring to leave his seat vacant and his State but partially represented sooner than allow any one to fill it who would oppose Johnson and his policy.

—A call is to be issued for an International Convention in Portland, Me., for the purpose of attracting attention, if possible, to the harbor of that city as a point for the exportation of western produce, and to the advantages of a direct line of railway across the continent, uniting Halifax, Portland, Buffalo, Detroit, Chicago and San Francisco by one connected chain of railway. The Convention will probably be held on Tuesday, August 4th.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

An Elopement—A Woman Deserts Her Husband and Absconds with a Boarder—The Husband Robbed of $1,100—A Merchant Tailor Victimized.

Henry A. Reed, a coal miner, residing at Brown's coal works, it appears has been a victim of misplaced confidence to the extent of $1,100. He came to the Mayor's office yesterday evening and made information charging Peter Bailey with the larceny of eleven hundred dollars. He alleges that he had eleven hundred dollars in the Dollar Savings Bank of this city, and Saturday he came in to draw it and received a check on a National Bank on Fourth street for the amount, payable to bearer. He failed to get the check cashed, but took it home with him and placed it in a chest in his room. It appears that he kept a boarding house, and that Bailey boarded with him. On Wednesday while he (Reed) was at work in the coal pit, Bailey broke open the chest and took the check and some of his clothing, and left in company with Mrs. Reed. They came to this city and went to a clothing establishment, where it appears Reed was known and had credit, and purchased two suits of clothes for Bailey, and had them charged to Reed's account. Since they left the clothing store, he has not heard from them, nor can he ascertain in which direction they traveled. He is of the opinion that they have gone to England. Officer Gumbert has the case in hand, and has telegraphed to all the principal cities a description of the pair, which may lead to their arrest.

Fatal Accident—Inquest.

Coroner Clawson was called upon yesterday to hold an inquest on the body of David Titzel, who was accidentally killed in Coleman, Rahm & Co.'s iron mills, Fifth ward, this city. It appears that he was assisting to hoist a heavy casting by block and tackle, and the ropes becoming entangled at the upper block, he ascended the rope to right it, when the block gave way and he fell, striking his chin upon the casting, crushing the jaw bones, the pieces of which penetrated the brain, killing him instantly. The jury found a verdict in accordance with the above facts.

The deceased was about forty years of age, and leaves a wife and family of children.

Correction.—The estimated cost of the improvements on the Second U. P. Church Allegheny, is twenty thousand instead of two thousand dollars, as a typographical error made us state in our notice yesterday.

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

THREE MEETINGS.

BY THE AUTHOR OF "JOHN HALIFAX, GENTLEMAN."

Oh the happy meeting from over the sea:
When I love my friend and my friend loves me;
And we stand face to face, and for letters read
There are endless words to be heard and said,
With a glance between, shy, anxious, half strange,
As if asking, "Say now is there aught of change?"
Till we both settle down as we used to be—
Since I love my friend and my friend loves me.

Oh the blissful meeting of lovers true,
Against whom faith has done all that faith could do;
And then dropped conquered:—while over those slain
Dead years of anguish, parting, and pain,
Hope lifts her banner, gay, gallant and fair,
Untainted, untorn, in the balmy air;
And the heaven of the future, golden and bright,
Arches above them—God guards the right!

But oh for the meeting to come one day,
When the spirit slips out of its house of clay;
When the standers-by, with a pitying sign,
Shall softly cover this face of mine,
And I leap—whither, ah! who can know?
But outward, onward, as spirits must go;
Until eye to eye, without fear I see
God, and my lost, as they see me.

EPHEMERIS.

—Lamartine is said to be crazy.

—Box-toes are now fashionable on ladies' shoes.

—Canaan, Maine, has a one hundred and one-er.

—Agricultural schools are to be started in Algeria.

—French lawyers are to be allowed soon to wear beards.

—Potato bugs are not pleasant but still they are in Massachusetts.

—There are six thousand more Americans than Germans in Chicago.

—Small-pox is threatening to become epidemic in Providence, R. I.

—Ghosts are terrifying the inhabitants of several of the counties of this State.

—Mrs. Lander is enjoying her well earned summer rest, at Swampscott, Mass.

—Turkish finances are said to be more prosperous just now than they usually are.

—One foot in the grave; a love story," is the name of one of the latest English novels.

—Deep lace ruffles on the shirt fronts are now once more the fashion for gentlemen's evening dress.

—There are four factories in Springfield, Mass., engaged in making buttons out of vegetable ivory.

—Judge Sharswood is one of the throng of candidates for nomination at the New York Convention.

—Erie has had cool weather and plenty of dust all the while we were indulging in our little rains here.

—Fifteen persons were killed on the 10th of June in Stockholm by the explosion of a nitro-glycerine factory.

—The Fenians in England now say that O'Farrell was insane and that the British government knew of it.

—An exchange thinks that a stone-mason on a four story house is about as high in masonry as any other man.

—Twenty thousand people want to get to see the fun at the Democratic Fourth of July celebration at New York.

—"Geo. B. M'Clellan for Vice President" is the latest humiliation suffered by that noble warrior and would-be statesman.

—What shall we eat? This not so much a riddle, as the name of a useful little book recently issued by G. P. Putnam and son.

—Dr. Cummings has been indulging in a little despair over the progress recently made in England by the Roman Catholic church.

—Trinity Chapel, New York, was the scene of a very fashionable wedding last week. The bride wore a gray travelling suit and a gray hat.

—Senator Yates has once more conquered the enemy and is now leading a sober life and is once more one of the most brilliant men in Washington.

—Geo. W. Middleton, a New York actor, has four wives. He liked to play Othello, but now he is harking to the Toombs, where he is residing.

—Jenkins is sorely troubled about Colfax. He can't find out whether the next Vice President is soon to be married or not, and Schuyler won't tell him.

—The Grand Duke of Luxemburg does not destroy the fortifications at Luxemburg, because it will cost him $6,000,000 to do so and he hasn't the money.

—General Carl Schurz has taken to the stump. General Grant has thrown away many a stump, but it is to none of these that Schurz has betaken himself.

—The second son of the Egyptian Viceroy is to be educated in England. His future profession will be military; at present he is but fifteen years of age.

—The Mormon Bishop, John Sharp, is at the head of a party of fifty saints who are working on that portion of the U. P. Railroad contracted for by Brigham Young.

—If a certain old gentleman and lady in Vermont live another eighteen months they will celebrate their diamond wedding. Their oldest child is now seventy-one years old.

—An exchange says two Pittsburgh merchants have been detected in smuggling nutmegs from Canada. The crime was not a small one, but it might have been a grater.

—The Mikado of Japan enjoys nothing better than improving on nature. He has had his eyebrows shaved off and another pair painted on an inch higher up on his forehead.

—Brick Pomeroy made a speech in St. Louis the other day, and so disgusted the Democrats that the Republicans are anxious to engage him to speak his piece throughout the season.

—The suicide mania is not confined to this country; it also rages in England, France and Germany. Seven persons took their own lives in London during the last week in May.

—A lunatic jumped from a New York ferry boat the other day, waving an American banner over his head, but the flag of the brave and the free didn't do him any good when he got into the water.

—Rev. Henry Stackpole, of Woodstock, Vermont, while descending a ladder at a saw mill in that place, a few days ago, lost his footing, and fell astride of a large circular saw, which severed him lengthwise.

—A Frenchman died in Buffalo a few days since after drinking two quarts of lager beer. Plenty of Germans have died here a good while after drinking a great deal more than two quarts of the national beverage.

—Hartz, the wizard, is traveling westward; his floating head and Indian basket tricks are among the most wonderful in the modern magical repertoire, but the manner of the wizard is unpleasant.

—The Hapsburg family, anxious to prove their gratitude to the two lawyers who defended the Emperor Maximilian and refused to take any fees, have forwarded to them each a service of silver plate worth $25,000.

—A Western lady recovered damages the other day from a dentist for renting her mouth to the doctor's student to take casts in beeswax and plaster, which she said seriously impeded her articulation and respiration.

—Senor Romero, the Mexican Ambassador to Washington, has returned to the United States for the purpose of getting a wife, he is to be married early in July to a young lady of Washington, who has just left boarding school.

—Alexander Dumas is well known to be an old hypocrite and sinner, so that no one will be much surprised to hear that he went to the first representation of his new play "Madame de Chamblay" and wept bitterly at all the affecting parts.

—Woman's rights are being agitated in various unexpected quarters, the latest is Lisbon in Portugal, where a paper has recently been started to advocate the principles of the Revolution of Miss Anthony; it is called the Voz Feminine.

—A negro has recently died in Washington. Thus far there is nothing very singular in the fact, but this negro left $300,000 behind him. This also was not so very peculiar, as far as the leaving is concerned, but the $300,000 part is certainly a mystery.

—Some old pipes were found in a place in Scotland where there was once a Roman camp. Other people have probably been there since, but that makes no difference to an English antiquary who says that this discovery proves that the Romans smoked.

—The people of Antwerp, Belgium, had recently a very lively time indeed, caused by a tiger which got loose from a menagerie and rendered himself generally obnoxious to the inhabitants. The beast was shot dead at last, but the people of the good old town were horribly scared.

—A Paris correspondent writes that the dress of the season for walking purposes is a foulard—the shade light fawn or cream color, with a fringe of a somewhat darker shade or satin. The indispensable fichu as Lambelle, or mantle and fichu combined, is worn with this cut in two skirts. At the theatres, pink silk is worn under high muslin bodices inserted with lace. Full dress at court is satin.

—An economical lady went to spend the winter with her consumptive husband in Florida. The husband died, and his widow had him packed in a box, in which, to save the expense of transportation and to give an agreeable surprise to her Northern friends, she also packed a quantity of fine oranges and sweet potatoes. The widow, the box and its miscellaneous contents all arrived in good condition at their destination. This is rather a notable example of peculiar economy.

—C. C. Cornwell, of Nebraska, who leads the graduating class in the Annapolis Naval School, is a model young man—a second Admirable Crichton. He is a thorough scholar, a great gymnast, excelling in all the manly sports. He so admirably divides his time with study and exercise, that he can devote the Sabbath to the teaching of a Sabbath-School. Purely religious, without a bit of hypocrisy and cant, he is deservedly popular with the officers and messmates.

—The funny man of the Philadelphia Bulletin was generally supposed to have exhausted himself on the recent boat race, but he didn't, and he comes up bravely to the front with the following excruciating remarks on the great Masonic celebration on Wednesday.

The Masons will take their Vaux abroad to-morrow.

The whole tone of the Masonic proceeding to-morrow will probably be Keys-tone.

The Masons will do their level best on the Square to-morrow.

We hope the Masons to-morrow will like their new white leather aprons, though it is likely they won't, for the aprons will certainly go against their stomachs.

If the Masonic diciples of St. John Baptist desire to feed upon his diet, they will have no trouble in procuring locusts, even if wild honey is scarce.

There is one characteristic which all the tilers of Masonic lodges have in common, They are invaribly sworded men.

Is it evident the Masons desire their organization to be perpetual, for their single aim is f'r-eternity.

No Masons will be permitted to participate in the procession to-morrow who "owe for a lodge in some vast wilderness."

It does not follow that the Masonic organization was founded by a certain Scriptural king simply because every Mason is A-grip-er.

AT THE RECENT ROYAL CHRISTENING at Vienna, the Countess Zichy wore a train robe of deep red watered satin, with rich embroidery in silver, in her hair a costly diadem of brilliants and pearls, from which flowed a white lace veil, embroidered with silver. Around her neck was a row of large solitaires, arranged in the form of stars, and at her breast a bouquet of diamonds and pearls. Equally rich and tasteful was the toilette of the Countess Ferdinand Zichy. Her robe was of blue silk richly ornamented with silver embroidery; her white lace veil, richly embroided with silver, descended from a wonderfully-wrought double diadem of diamonds and pearls which once belonged to Marie Antoinette. Among the most beautiful of these exquisite toilettes must be reckoned that of the Baroness Paul Sennyey, whose whole train robe consisted of gold lace, with golden bouquets gloriously wrought, all thrown over a ground of light violet watered satin. In front the robe was laced with strings of pearls, over which flowed a long veil of gold lace.

FOR SALE--REAL ESTATE.

FOR SALE.

500 ACRES OF WHITE PINE AND HEMLOCK TIMBER LAND, situated on Black Lick Creek, Buffington township, Indiana county, Pa., 9 miles from Nineveh Station, on the Pennsylvania Central Railroad, and about 60 acres of cleared land, under good fencing. On the premises are erected one Grist Mill, with 2 run of burrs and 2 run of stones, all complete and in good running order. One Saw Mill, in complete order, cutting 3,000 feet per day.

One dwelling house, two stories high, with 12 rooms, 40x42 feet.
One dwelling, 28x40 feet, 8 rooms.
One " 18x26 " 2 "
One " 18x26 " 4 "
One " 18x26 " 2 "
One " 24x26 " 5 "

One Stable, 20x24 feet, 16 feet high; Blacksmith Shop and other outbuildings. This land is underlaid with stone coal and iron ore, and it has plenty of never-failing springs of water, besides the creek running through the entire premises, and will be sold cheap and on easy terms, to a good man with a little money.

10 LOTS ON BEDFORD AVENUE, each lot 20 by 100 feet, on which is erected four two-story frame dwelling houses, of 6 rooms and hall each. These lots embrace a full square of gronnd, fronting 200 feet on Bedford avenue, and bounded on each end by a wide street, with an 18 feet alley in the rear. On the premises is a pump of lasting and excellent water, and the surface of the lots is level and needs neither filling nor grading to prepare them for building purposes, and being in a section of the city where property is increasing very rapidly in value, make them desirable for an investment, especially as the present houses rent for enough to pay a good interest on the sum asked for the whole proper y. Call soon on the undersigned and secure a cheap, safe and paying investment.

Also, A FARM OF 160 ACRES of good land, situated in East Wheatfield township, Indiana Co., Pa., 90 acres of which is cleared land, in good cultivation, 20 acres being in excellent meadow. The improvements are a two-story frame dwelling house of 4 rooms, a frame bank barn, 36x60 feet, with stabling underneath, and other outbuildings, all in good repair. It is in a good neighborhood, convenient to schools, churches, stores, &c., and will be sold very low for cash or approved securities.

Also, a RIVER BOTTOM FARM of 76 acres, 19 miles from the city, in Elizabeth township, Allegheny county, Pa., on the Youghiogheny river, one-half mile from Elrod's Station, on the Connellsville railroad; near churches, schools, stores, &c., in the flourishing villages of Boston and Green Oak. The improvements are a two-story brick house of six rooms, hall and cellar, a good frame bank barn with stabling underneath, and other outbuildings; a well of good standing water at the door, and several standing springs of water on the farm, and an orchard of 700 trees of selected fruits of apples, cherries, pears, peaches, quinces and grapes. This property being located near the line of the railroad, within one hour's ride of the city, makes it very desirable for gardening or a dairy farm; it is also a good and beautiful location for country homes near the city, lying immediately on the river, on the opposite side from the railroad. The West Newton Accommodation and other trains on the railroad afford certain and frequent opportunities of daily communication to and from the city. Will be sold as a whole or in lots of one acre or more, to suit purchasers.

Also, A FARM OF 173 ACRES, situated in St. Clair township, Westmoreland county, Pa., near the line of the Pennsylvania Railroad at Houston Station. The improvements are a two-story frame house, with six rooms and good cellar, a frame bank barn 40 by 60 feet, and other outbuildings. There is on the place a young apple and peach orchard; 120 acres cleared land, divided into fields of convenient size, a large portion of which are well set in clover and timothy; the residue of said tract covered with good timber. It is well watered and underlaid with coal and limestone, and is convenient to churches, schools, stores, mills and blacksmith shops. A real good bargain is offered in this excellent farm; and with it will be sold all the personal property on the premises, consisting of horses, cows, stock cattle, hogs and poultry, harness, gears, wagon, plows, farming implements and household and kitchen furniture. Together will be sold very low and on easy terms, to a responsible purchaser.

Also, a desirable and very fertile Tract of Land of 158 ACRES AND 25 PERCHES, in Elizabeth Tp., Allegheny county, Pa., on the line of the Hempfield railroad, and one and one-half miles from the Connellsville railroad at Suter's Station. On this farm are 40 acres of superior white oak timber, which alone is now worth one-half the price asked for the whole tract. The improvements are a log house, frame barn, good fencing, and an apple orchard of good fruit. It is well watered and underlaid with limestone and flag stone of a superior quality, with stone coal for the use of the farm.

Also, The best FARM in Fairfield township, Westmoreland county, Pa., of 250 ACRES, about six miles south of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad at Bolivar Station. CHEAPEST BUILDING LOTS in MARKET are those offered for sale in the thriving village of Allentown, adjoining the Birmingham line, and only fifteen minutes' walk from the end of the Monongahela bridge. This town is growing rapidly. Over $70,000 was realized for lots sold last season, and over fifty neat dwellings were erected during the season. As a special inducement to mechanics, we are willing to close the balance of the lots at the low price of from $200 to $350 each, and on terms easier than paying rent. We are on the premises every afternoon from 3 to 7 o'clock; or apply at our office, corner of Fourth and Smithfield streets.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
THURSDAY, June, 24, 1868. }

We have no essential change to note in prices since our last issue. The volume of trade continues very light, and in most articles of general produce there seems to be a tendency to a lower range. In regard to Flour and Wheat it is not probable that present prices can go lower, until the new crop is safe from frosts, rusts, etc. This cannot be told for some time yet, but the present prospects for a larger crop than has been harvested for the past six years were never more flattering. At present the receipts of leading articles of produce are not large, but add quite to the demand. We quote:

BUTTER—Prime to choice fresh packed is selling at 26 to 27c.

EGGS—Market lower and dull at 23 per dozen, with sales reported of 20 barrels at 22c.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is quoted at 13½ for Shoulders 16 to 18 for Ribbed and Clear Sides; Canvassed Sugar Cured Hams, 19½ to 19¾c. Lard, 18 to 18¼c, and Mess Pork, $29,00. Dreid Beef, 20 to 22c.

LARD OIL—Market quiet. Sales of No. 1 extre were made at $1,40, and No. 2 at $1,20 per gallon.

CHEESE—Demand moderate. We quote Ohio Switzer at 20c; Limburg, 19c; Western Reserve at 13c, and Factory at 15c.

BEANS—Cheice small White sell readily $6,25 to $6,75.

HAY—Is dull and neglected but unhanged; sales of wagon Hay $15 to $20, as to quality.

POTATOES—Prime Peach Blows are still selling at $1,20 to $1,25 per bushel. New Potatoes $6,00 to $6,50 per bbl, and dull.

SALT—Dull; Allegheny River brands are still quoted at $1,75 to $1,80 to the trade, and $2,00 for small lots in store.

MILL FEED—We quote Bran at $1,20 to $1,25, and Middlings at $1,65 to $1,80.

FLOUR—The market was moderatively active but unchanged. We continue to quote at $9,50 to $10 for medium Spring Wheat, and $10,50 to $10,75 for prime to choice; $11 to $11,50 for Winter Wheat and $14 to $15 for fancy brands. Rye Flour is quoted at $9, for small lots in store.

GRAIN—We have no particular change to note. Oats steady, with sales on track at 76 to 80c, and and from rtore at 80 to 83. Winter Wheat is scarce and in fair milling demand at $2,25 to $2,30 for Red and White. Choice Shelled and Ear Corn, from elevator sold at $1,05 to $1,08. Rye is nominally quoted at $1,55 to $1,60. We have no quotations for Barley, as the receipts are next to nothing.

SEEDS—There is a steady demand for Flaxseed at $2,50 to $2,55, and but little offering.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBUGH GAZETTE, }
THURSDAY, June 25, 1868. }

CRUDE—There was rather more inquiry for spot oil to-day, and, as a consequence, the market was a shade firmer. It will be remembered that on Wednesday there was sales at 12 to 12¼c, while to-day 12½c was offered; there was but a single sale reported, 1,000 bbls for June, seller's option, at 12½c. Oil City telegrams report a firmer feeling, but without quotable change; sale of 1,000 bbls at $4,80, and 1,000 at $4,85.

REFINED—The market for bonded oil opened up very much excited this forenoon, but broke in the after, after the reception of advices from Philadelphia reporting that Antwerp had declined from 47 to 44½ francs. Still later in the day it was discovered that the Antwerp news was bogus—that instead of declining to 44½, it had only dropped to 46¾; this being the case, a firmer feeling sprung up again, and one sale was effected at forenoon quotations. The sales reported were as follows: 500 bbls for last half of August at 28¼c, on cars here; 500, on spot, at 30¼c, delivered in Philadelphia; 500 do, on spot, at 30¾c, and 100 each August to December at 32¾c. Early in the day there were offers lo buy at 33c for August; 32¾c for August to December, and 32¾c for July to November. There was a sale of 1,000 bbls Benzole for July, seller's option, at 15c.

RIVER NEWS.

The river continues to recede slowly at this point, with but three feet five inches in the channel by the Monongahela. The weather yesterday was cloudy and clear at intervals, though very pleasant.

The Glasgow arrived from Parkersburg last night, and will leave again to-day at noon. She would have been here much sooner had she not have been detained by fog.

The J. N. McCullough would arrive from Cincinnati sometime last night, and will leave again for that point to-day at noon. The McCullough is a splendid large side wheel, and offers superior inducement to passengers. Capt. Geo. D. Moore is still in command with his brother Dan in the office.

The Silver Cloud cleared for St. Louis yesterday with all the freight, she could take on the water.

The steamboat Armadillo was sold at public sale yesterday by Gen. Rowley, United States Marshall, for $7,300. M. Atwood Lorenz was the purchaser.

The Charmer Capt. Lew Vandergrift, with Mr. J. R. Whittaker, in the office, is announced to leave for St. Louis to-day, as is also the Kate Robinson. Capt. John Shunk. These are both first class low water boats, and will doubtless go through without delay.

The Camelia, Capt. Wm. Dean, is also announced for St. Louis forthwith.

Jake Sedam telegraphs the arrival at Sioux City, from Fort Benton, of the steamer Lacon, with one hundred passengers and $200,000 in gold.

My attention has been repeatedly called to a poster or placard placed conspicuously along the river, by the steamer Richmond, in which they claim the fastest time on record. The time claimed by them is 4:35 from Memphis to Ft. Pillows. In referring to the New Orleans Crescent, of May 14th, in the river column, I notice an item from the Louisville Courier in which the Richmond claims to have run as follows: From Memphis to Island 37 in 3 hours; from Memphis to Randolph in 3:38; from Memphis to Ft. Pillow in 4:35. Now a large portion of the traveling community, I have no doubt, will believe this, because they do not know the precise distance between the points above mentioned. The distance from Memphis to Island 37 is 40 miles, and from Island 37 to Randolph is 20 miles.

Now, granting that the Richmond did run from Memphis to Island 37 in three hours, which is an ordinary run for the Robert E. Lee, she claims to have made the run from Memphis to Randolph, which is twenty miles further than Island 37, in 3:38; that is, running twenty miles in 88 minutes which is equal to about thirty-two miles an hour, which any one of common judgment will know to be incredible. Now, I do not write this as a challenge, but simply to give facts, and to relieve the community from any hoax that may be practiced upon them by would-be fast boats. Nevertheless, I will state that the low-pressure Richmond or any other low or high-pressure steamer think they have or can make fast time, let them beat 16:37 from Memphis to Cairo, and we will present them with the horns that now grace our pilot-house.

—The Louisville Courier contains the following: We are credibly informed that in the shipment of Government freight from this point five cents per hundred more is paid by the Government than by private shippers, and that the difference does not go into the pockets of the steamboatmen, but into those of a third party, who manages the shipment of the freight. The way this nice little operation, which is quite profitable to somebody, is conducted, is as follows: For instance, there is say one hundred tuns of freight to be shipped to St. Louis. The regular rate is 20c per hundred pounds. The boat contracts to deliver it at that price, but the bills of lading are made out at the rate of 25c per hundred, and the Government pays for it that rate. The question is who gets the difference of 5c per hundred. The boat does not get it, as it is paid to the shipper upon the receipt of the freight. The boats have no option in the matter. All they ask is the regular rate, 20c per hundred, but if they will not consent to have the bills of lading made out in the manner mentioned, they get no freight and it is reserved for others whose consciences are not so tender. The directness with which our information comes, leaves but little dobut in the matter, and it should be investigated by the proper authorities.

—The St. Louis Democrat, of Wednesday, says: Our Ohio river trade was very brisk until lately. It has let down wofully. The Maggie Hays has laid up, turning over what little freight she had to the Lawrence. The Galatea is announced for charter to picnic parties during the summer months. The Glendale, we are informed, will not begin to load at present for the Ohio, but would put her shingle up for New Orleans if there was considerably less water in the channel. The Pittsburgh boats have no desire to load with ore and sand at the low rates offered, while the upper Ohio is in so unfavorable a condition.

—St. Louis telegram, under date of Tuesday, says: Business with upper rivers continues good, the passenger traffic being especially heavy; but freight for the Ohio is scarce. The Maggie Hays laid up after giving her freight to the Lawrence. The Galatia has entered into the pic-nic and excursion business. The Glendale will not attempt to load at present. Pittsburgh boats are not willing to load for that point at ruling rates, and low water in the Upper Ohio. The New York also shows signs of laying over till matters are settled.

UNDER THE REGISTRY LAW the polling of voters will at once commence. The work has been entrusted to competent and faithful gentlemen, who will discharge their duties impartially and we daresay with ability.

NOTWITHSTANDING the reports, which state that the shorter tariff bill last reported in the Ways and Means has been postponed to the next session, it is understood that a vigorous effort is yet to be made to secure its consideration and passage before the adjournment.

THE Columbia Spy, a new and sprightly daily paper, succeeding the weekly Spy, of Columbia, Pennsylvania, has made its appearance amongst our exchanges. It is a very neat and readable sheet, and will not be long in obtaining full recognition among the leading daily journals of the Commonwealth.

THE Republicans of the XVIIth, or Lycoming, Congressional District, of this State, have unanimously nominated Hon. W. H. Armstrong of Williamsport, to succeed the present member, Hon. S. T. Wilson, who declines a re-election. The nominee is a lawyer of ability, eloquent at the bar and before the people, and possesses a great and deserved popularity. His election by 3,000 majority is predicted.

IT is possible that Mississippi may have declined to avail herself of the Congressional proposition, but we are not yet wholly prepared to accept the conclusion from the present imperfect returns. Should such be the result, however, in that State, we may still believe that Congress, actuated by statesman-like wisdom, and continuing in force the present Military government of that State, will leave the offer open, to abide the return of more considerate and patriotic sentiments among the citizens of Mississippi.

THE Wayne Citizen, of Honesdale, Pennsylvania, has made its appearance. It is much larger than the Republican which it succeeds, and will compare favorably with any weekly newspaper in the State. In its salutatory, its editor announces that it will be independent of all cliques and rings, consistently holding and advocating the principles of the Union Republican party. H. C. WELLS, Esq., a writer of decided ability, has assumed the editorial chair, and Mr. E. A. PENNIMAN is the publisher. We wish it a large measure of prosperity.

FOREIGN ADVICES announce that great preparations are in progress among German Protestants "for the forthcoming celebration of the Reformation" at Worms. The precise day fixed for this celebration, or why it has been resolved upon at this particular period, do not clearly appear. The Great Reformer, MARTIN LUTHER, was born at Eisleben, in Prussian Saxony, November 10th, 1483. His famous Ninety Five Theses were affixed to the cathedral gates, October 21st, 1517. He was excommunicated by the Pope, June 20th, 1520, and the immortal Protest of his adherents, from which Protestantism has taken its name, was declared April 20th, 1529. As these dates are old-style, it follows that July 1st, 1868, is to witness the 348th annual anniversary of his excommunication, and that this is the event which is to be commemorated upon that day.

THE HOUSE makes good progress with the new Internal Tax bill, and there are hopes that its consideration may be finished this week. We regret to perceive that doubts are expressed of its passage in the Senate at this session. So far as concerns the whisky and tobacco taxes and the faithful and efficient collection of the same, this measure is not only of vital consequence to the Treasury, but, if possible, it has a bearing even more direct upon the National authority and honor. If members see their way clear to be justified, in the neglect of such legislation as may be requisite to enable the Treasury to meet the financial obligations of the country, they can never plead any adequate excuse, outside of the White House, for delinquencies in the manifest and imperative duty of grappling with and overthrowing a private combination more infamously corrupt and more audaciously defying the public authority than was ever before known in our history. Congress should flatten out that whisky ring if it takes all summer, and this new tax-bill affords the most effective method, now accessible, for doing it.

THE curious tactics of the President are precisely illustrated just now, in his dealings with his Treasury Secretary, Mr. MCCULLOCH. He desires his retirement, but has, apparently, special and decisive reasons for forbearing to remove him. The Secretary is at the same time aware that a formal resignation would be accepted, and yet declines to offer it. The semi-official journals of the administration, therefore, abound with assaults of a nature evidently designed to force a solution of the embarrassment, either by goading the Secretary into an absolute withdrawal, or by stiffening up His Excellency's back enough to take the responsibility of a removal downright. A change, no matter how accomplished, is very certain to be followed by an effective Democratizing of the office, in its policy and the character of its subordinates. It is likely, however, that the change will not take place, if at all, before the adjournment of the Democratic Convention.

"THAT man who pays more for his rent than for his advertising does not know his business." This maxim of an experienced and successful merchant is incontrovertible. It matters less to have a fine store, than that everybody should know where it is and what is in it. It is poor policy to put a couple of hundred thousand dollars in a building and then stop. One store is no better than another, except so far as more customers enter it, and it is advertising which brings custom to one merchant or dealer rather than another. The time is coming, and coming soon, when advertising will be the heaviest expenditure in carrying on any business, and it will become so because it will be the most remunerative. If advertising is thus the soul of business, it will not take a very long argument to prove to a clear brain that the very hour business begins to flag, then is the moment to apply the stimules of increased and more vigoroue advertising—

> The tide in the affairs of men

They are the successful men—the kings of trade—who see the fortunate moment, and seize it.—Phila. Press.

AGAINST ALL RECENT or still existing indications to the contrary, it is doubtless safe to predict that the Democratic National Convention will be under the guidance of the old leaders, and will avow its hostility to all genuine conception and expression of democratic principles. The oligarchic tendency, created and fostered in the Democratic party, through the long period of pro-slavery domination over it, is still undiminished, nay, is perhaps even stronger now than it was before Slavery was extinguished. The bitter contempt for absolute rights, as the common and inalienable heritage of all human beings, which characterized it in the days of its lusty strength, has not been mollified by adversity, but rather increased; just as the spirit of exclusiveness and the love of ceremony generally appear most conspicuous in Princes who have been deposed and driven into exile. It has learned nothing from the humiliations and defeats to which it has been subjected; but has become more cynical, coarse, brutal and malignant in its feelings and conduct towards the black race.

Whatever Reason may suggest in view of the actual enfranchisement of the blacks, and whatever Prudence may dictate as to the political power which the colored race, by virtue of their numbers and probable increase in intelligence and property, will exert in the course of a comparatively few years, the Democratic leaders, true to the instincts of the mass of their followers, will array themselves on the side of caste and privilege, and against political equality and fraternity. They will insist that this "is a white man's government," and that, consequently, "the blacks have no political rights that white men are bound to respect." Upon this basis they will stir to the very bottom the vilest passions of the most profligate and depraved classes of the whites, and these disgusting appeals will be received with the greatest delight, by those white men who have no better title to consideration than the color of their skins, and who are always denied social equality with the leaders whose political inculcations they receive with the keenest relish.

It is not to be regretted that the canvass is likely to take this shape. White blackguards and ragamuffins may as well take the present occasion as any other, for making a last exhibition of their fiendishness towards those whom Nature has clothed in a dark-hued cuticle. One thorough exhibition more of this sort will make a final end in that line in this country.

THE QUESTION OF RECONSTRUCTION can hardly be involved in the canvass which will actively commence soon after the conclusion of the Democratic National Convention. Congress has already provided for the admission of Arkansas, of North and South Carolina, Georgia, Louisiana, Alabama and Florida. Virginia, Mississippi and Texas remain unprovided for. Even if the cases of these latter States shall go over to the next session, no severer terms will be exacted of them than of the others.

The re-admission of those States first enumerated is predicated upon the ratification by them of the fourteenth amendment of the Constitution, and their agreement that no person shall hereafter be deprived by them of political rights on account of color or condition. Compliance with these terms is not doubtful. All those seven States, therefore, will, within a few weeks, be fairly back in the Union, exercising all the rights formerly enjoyed by them. This will be distasteful to the Democrats, who prefer those States should remain under military government perpetually, rather than have the fundamental principle of genuine Democracy fully established within their borders.

But the re-admission of those States, as proposed, involves somewhat more. The Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution provides for negro suffrage in all the States which participated in the Rebellion. When that amendment shall be duly ratified and become part and parcel of the Constitution, as it surely will be, the Democrats will be in a dilemma. For twenty years, and especially the last eight, they have been shouting "The Constitution! the Constitution!" as though it was a species of Grand Lama, not to be touched or rudely blown upon. They have professedly bowed before it as to a fetich; not of the people and for them, but something above them, and for obeying which they were all created. What will these Democrats do when they find negro suffrage in the Constitution, with no chance of getting it out? Will they denounce the Constitution? or will they consent that negro suffrage is just and good in some parts of the country? At all events, if they will pitch into the Constitution, or into anything it contains, they must permit us to remind them occasionally of the pungent words they have uttered against persons and parties who were so irreverent as to lay hands or vent acrimonious speech against the Constitution of the United States.

THE WHEAT HARVEST.

Our crop reports continue to be of a character more satisfactory than have been noted at this period for several years. Throughout the South, the condition of their great staple, cotton, is favorably spoken of, while the growing corn, in unusual breadth, exhibits an unequalled luxuriance and thrift. Wheat, by far the most important of all the grains, has been already harvested, and not only in those regions, but also in the Border States, as the ripening of the crop comes Northward, the harvest is reported as of the greatest abundance and completed under the most favorable conditions. From every part of the Middle States, as well as from the remoter West, we have such flattering accounts of the character of the crop now rapidly maturing, as to justify the opinion that the wheat harvest of '68 will be unparalleled for seven years, in yield and quality. It is, in the regions spoken of, fairly out of danger, except such as may threaten it in the stack, and four weeks more will see the bulk of the crop, south of the parallel of the Lake Erie shore, safely in the garners of the husbandmen. If the spring wheat of the Northwest shall do as well, the year will be marked as one of unprecedented plenty, and, re-inaugurating an era of Cheap Bread for the Millions, will revivify the prosperity of the Nation

THE PROGRESS OF RESTORATION.

Mr. JOHNSON'S veto of the Omnibus bill postponed its maturity into a law, so far as the House was concerned, just about thirty minutes, for it required no longer time than that to listen to his brief message, call the previous question, and repass the bill by yeas and nays by a good deal more than the constitutional majority in that body. The concurrence of a similar vote in the Senate is not to be doubted, nor that the week will close upon the greater part of the new Senators and Representatives sworn in. But three of the late rebel States now remain provincial and unrepresented. Either one of these alone, were the case a new one, would present to the American people questions of such deep interest that the current canvass would be made to hinge upon them alone. Yet, after what has been in the seven past years, the country, regarding rather the magnitude of the more serious difficulties from which it is so nearly extricated, after an experience so bitter and bloody, will look upon one or two States more or less as of little comparative consequence, and will observe the continued exclusion of Virginia, Texas or Mississippi with almost a positive indifference. The critical period has really gone by, and if those latter States shall prefer their condition of semi-military dependence, or shall be debarred, by other circumstances not under their own control, from representation in the November vote, it will be a matter in which the people of the Union at large will not any longer feel the interest which has hitherto prevailed. Virginia, Mississippi and Texas may, for all this, thank themselves in part, and in part the perverse, impracticable and unprofitable obstinacy of their friend, the President.

THE new Federal Eight-Hour Law, which has passed both Houses of Congress, is as follows:

> Be it enacted, &c., That eight hours shall constitute a day's work for all laborers, workmen, and mechanics now employed, or who may be hereafter employed by or on behalf of the Government of the United States, and that all Acts and parts of Acts inconsistent with this Act be and are hereby repealed.

The bill now goes to the President, who will sign it, as he is committed in favor of the principles involved.

THE Washington correspondent of the Boston Post says: Mr. McCulloch goes to London to take charge of a banking house soon to open in that city by Messrs Jay Cooke & Co., and his purpose was to retire from his present position soon after the adjournment of Congress. Such is believed still to be his purpose, unless it be changed by the assaults made upon him, in season or out of season, with the declared purpose of driving him from the Cabinet. Secretary McCulloch has shown that he cannot be driven by such artillery. When his arrangements shall have been completed, he will surrender his present commission and not before, unless requested to do so by the President himself. Such is understood among Mr. McCulloch's friends to be his true position, notwithstanding all that has been said and written upon the subject.

HARVEST, THE CROPS, ETC.—Our farmers, generally, in this vicinity, commenced cutting wheat this morning. The yield now promises to be greater than it has been for several years, and we do not know that we ever remember of seeing the grains larger and more plump than they are this season. If the weather remains as delightful as it is to-day, until the close of the week, the great bulk of the wheat will be harvested. We understand that harvest hands are being paid at the rate of $2,50 per day.—Alton Telegraph of Monday.

ALLEGHENY COUNCILS.

Select Council.

Members present—Messrs. Black, Brown, Callery, English, Hall, Krebs, Motheral, Myler, Patterson, J. C., Patterson, A., Phillips, Riddle, Reiter, Smith, A. D., Smith, Wm., Weise, Wettach and President McBrier.

On motion of Mr. A. Patterson, the reading of the minutes was dispensed with.

Mr. Myler presented a petition for the grading of Union avenue. Referred to the Street Committee.

Mr. Black presented a petition for water pipe on Ridge street. Referred to Water Committee.

Mr. Myler presented the following resolution:

Resolved, That the City Engineer be and is hereby instructed to raise the grade on South Canal street, at its junction with Walnut street, eight inches.

Mr. Brown moved to amend by requiring the Engineers approval of the resolution.

Mr. Hall moved to amend by referring the resolution to the Street Committee.

A vote was taken on Mr. Hall's amendment, and the Chair being unable to decide a division was called which resulted in the negative.

The question then recurred on the resolution as amended by Mr. Brown.

The resolution was adopted. C. C. non-concurred. S. C. adhered, and a Committee of Conference was appointed. The Committee reported recommending that C. C. concur. Pending adoption of the report of the Committee a motion to lay on the table was adopted.

Mr. Wettach offered a resolution authorizing the Police Committee to have two night police placed in the Seventh ward. Referred to the Police Committee.

Mr. Phillips submitted a resolution providing that but one meeting be held in each month, and that the fourth Thursday of the month be the day of meeting during the months of July and August.

Mr. English objected to the resolution. He said if the gentleman could not stand the hot weather he could remain at home and allow those who wished to attend to the business of the city to do so,

The resolution was lost.

Mr. English, from the Park Commission, offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Councils of this city be urged to place under contract at an early a day as possible the Montgomery avenue sewer, and such of the latteral sewers therefrom as extend through the Common ground, in order that the Commission may be enabled to proceed with the work of improving the Commons. Read and referred to the Sewer Commission.

The Chair read a remonstrance against the opening of Rebecca street. Referred to the Committee on Streets and Sewers.

Also a communication from the City Engineer, asking for a set of engineering instruments.

On motion of Mr. Hall, referred to the Committee on City Property with power to act.

Mr. Patterson presented a petition asking for water pipe on Church avenue, between Sandusky street and Union avenue. Referred to the Water Committee.

Mr. Myler stated that he had been infored that the supply of water was insufficient and thought some means should be adopted to make it adequate to the demand.

Mr. Phillips offered the following ordinance:

Resolved, That the Mayor be instructed to enforce the ordinance relative to fast driving in the city. Adopted.

Mr. Riddle presented a remonstance from the residents and property owners on Jackson street against the widening of said street, and asking that the ordinance providing for the same be repealed. He moved its reference to the Committee on Streets and Sewers.

Mr. Hull moved to amend by laying the remonstrance on the table until such time as the viewers on the widening of the street shall have reported. The amendment was adopted.

Mr. Myler offered an ordinance authorizing the Controller to certify a warrant on on the City Treasurer for the sum of $3,951 20, in favor of the contractors of the North Canal Sewer, that amount being assesed on the common grounds, and for the sum of $7,900 in favor of said contractors, it being 20 per cent of said Sewer which the city agreed to pay, having increased the dimensions of the sewer to that extent for the benefit of the districts lying above the North Common.

Mr. A. D. Smith moved the adoption of the ordinance with the amendment, authorizing the Controller to charge the sum of $7,900 to an account hereafter to be opened, and that the sum be refunded to the city by extra assessments on all sewers which may hereafter be made intersecting the Canal Sewer.

Mr. English moved that the amendment be referred to the City Solicitor for his approval. The amendment was lost.

The ordinance as amended by Mr. Smith was read three times and passed.

Mr. Brown offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That a committee of five, two from Select and three from Common Council, be appointed in connection with the Engineer to take into consideration the short supply of water in the Second and Third wards, and to suggest such measures as will obviate such difficulty.

The resolution was adopted, and Messrs. William Smith and Hartman appointed in S. C. C. C. concurred and appointed Messrs. Tate, Comley and Warner.

In all business not otherwise noted Com-Council concurred.

On motion adjourned.

Common Branch.

Members present: Messrs. Brown, Cutler, Clark, Dunham, Hanna, Hastings, Hochuly, Kennedy, Kunkle, Lindsay, Ley, Megraw, Mayer, McDonald, McNeill, Ober, Reynolds, Reed, Saints, Seidle, Tate, Voegtly, White, Warner and President Slagle. Members absent: Messrs. Blair, Comley, Eyster, Fleming, Geyer, Groetzinger and Richardson.

The minutes of the preceding meeting were read and approved.

Mr. Megraw presented a petition from residents in the Fourth ward, for the erection of a lamp post on the corner of Madison avenue and River Lane. Referred to Committee on Gas.

Mr. McNeill, a petition from citizens on Jefferson street, Second ward, for water pipe. Referred to Committee on Water.

Mr. Reynolds, a petition from property owners in the Eighth ward, late Duqusne borough, for extension of water pipe. Referred to Committee on Water.

Mr. Tate, a petition for water pipe on Union and Taggart avenues and Charles street. Referred to Water Committee.

Mr. McDonald, a petition from residents on Beaver street, Second ward, for the opening of said street from Jackson to Ledlie streets, to a width equal to that below Jackson street. Referred to the Street Committee.

Mr. White, a petition from property owners on Beaver avenue, for a culvert on said avenue at the crossing of Juniata street. Referred to the Street Committee.

Mr. Warner, a petition for water pipe on Franklin street, from Market street to the river. Referred to the Water Committee.

Also, a petition from the citizens of the upper part of the Sixth ward, for draining of Sedgwick street. Referred to the Committee on Streets and Sewers.

Mr. Mayer presented a remonstrance from residents on Evans alley, Sixth ward, against paying the assessment for grading and paving the same.

Mr. Cutler moved to refer to a special committee.

After some discussion the motion was lost, and the remonstrance referred to Street Committee.

Mr. Kennedy presented a resolution instructing the City Engineer to re-examine the grade of Hamlin street, Sixth ward, in connection with Street Committee, and report back to Councils. Adopted.

Mr. Comley presented a remonstrance from property holders on South Canal street against change of grade. Referred to Street Committee.

Mr, Cutler, a resolution instructing the Mayor to enforce the ordinance against night soilers. Adopted.

In S. C. laid on the table.

Mr. Voeghtly, a resolution for the laying of a three inch water pipe on Long lane. He moved to refer to the Water Committee with power to act.

Mr. Tate objected and amended, striking out "with power to act."

Mr. Hanna thought it best simply to refer.

After some further discussion the amendment was lost and the resolution adopted as read.

Mr. Ober offered a resolution instructing the Committee on Gas to place a lamp post on the corner of New Troy Road and Vine alley. Referred to the Committee on Gas.

The Committee on Poor Farm reported an ordinance authorizing the Directors of the Poor to sell certain numbered lots in the plan of the Poor Farm to the borough of Millvale for the purpose of erecting a school house thereon, directing the vacation of Bennett street, between Arch and Mill streets. Also to convey sufficient ground to the Western Pennsylvania Railroad to erect a station.

Report accepted and ordinance adopted.

The report of the Sewerage Commission was then taken up and elicited a very lengthy discussion.

Mr. Megraw moved to refer back to City Engineer and Street Committee, to report cuts, costs and the practicability of the Montgomery Avenue route. Mr. Warner moved that Mr. Carlisle, Assistant Engineer, be heard. Adopted.

Mr. Carlisle, by request, gave a detailed estimate of the cost of the two routes, from which it appears that the route as laid down by Mr. Davis, would cost $94,000, and the proposed route by Montgomery Avenue one hundred and fifty two thousand.

A motion to adjourn was voted down.

Mr. McNeill called for the yeas and nays on the question of referring back, resulting in 11 yeas to 13 nays.

Mr. White moved to concur in action of Select Council adopting the plan as presented by City Engineer.

Mr. Mayer said according to the rules Councils were adjourned, it being past ten o'clock.

Mr. Hanna contended that the rule would not apply in the present instance as a question was before the house.

The Chair decided Councils still in session. A motion to adjourn should have been made at the appointed time.

Mr. McNeill called for the yeas and nays on the adoption of the plan of sewerage, resulting in 14 yeas and 10 nays.

So the report was adopted.

In all business not otherwise noted, Select Councils concurred.

On motion, adjourned.

The "Old Folks" Concert.

Professional musicians, in either department, who visit Pittsburgh, elicit the habitual commendations of our citizens, by reason of the skilful method or the tricks of the art which enable them to cover up hard and metallic, worn and hackneyed voices, so that they pass undisputed for being worth a good deal more than they really are. But, last evening, as on several former occasions during the past season, we improved the opportunity afforded by resident amateur talent of the city, to institute the most flattering comparison between those who make of the divine art a regular and profitable calling, and the fresh, pure, vigorous and yet thoroughly scientific capacities and execution of the ladies and gentlemen, our own citizens, whom we all know so well, and who devote themselves, upon suitable occasions, to the gratification of their thousand friends by public concerts such as that at the Academy. We have no hesitation in declaring that on this and the other similar occasions to which we have alluded, the lovers of good music in these cities have seen ample cause to agree with us that, in all the qualities which go to make good music really a gratification to the cultivated ear, our own amateur talent has shown itself to be far in advance of anything we have heard from the regular trade. It is because music is made a trade, professionally and for profit, by people who have it only upon their tongues and from the larynx outward, while our young friends who sing in the Haymakers, at cathedral concerts, or get themselves up as "old folks" in stage costumes which their own grandmothers would disown, sing for the love of it, because they have divine melody in their souls, and give it utterance, con amore, with sincere and devoted earnestness as well as with conspicuous fidelity and no mean skill. That is music which carries expression with it, not a mere trick of trained organs, but the passionate and deep expression of natures thoroughly imbued with the sentiment of melody.

The Academy of Music was comfortably filled last night, and had it not been for the exercises at the Female College, which drew so many people elsewhere, the house would have been crowded. The programme, judiciously selected, was successfully executed throughout. The proprieties forbid us to dwell upon the names and special triumphs of the young ladies and gentlemen, nor have we the space at our command for any extended commentary. We cannot forbear saying, however, that the solos, "Waiting," "Ah! my Child," and another, not named in the programme, by the ladies, as well as "The Exile," the duetts and quartettes were marked by the most careful method, exact precision and faithful execution. The several choruses should be mentioned, as another proof of the vast superiority and cultivated amateur ability over the heterogeneous mob of discordant voices which usually composes the "support" of regular professional exhibitions. No such chorus, as that of last evening, was ever heard in Pittsburgh, on any professional occasion. It was wonderfully exact, harmonious and complete. We have stated above the true reason why such choruses excel.

The entertainment throughout was of the highest order, illustrating as a whole and in every detail, how effectively our young votaries of music can be united in this common worship of refined and cultivated melody, and reflecting much credit to Prof. Lawton, under whose direction it was held

An Important Libel Case.

A libel case of considerable importance is under way in Fayette county and will probably be tried at the next Quarter Sessions. The alleged libel is the publication in the Waverley Magazine of April 24th a local romance entitled "The Spectre Flower," written by Albert Bolen. of New Salem, Fayette county, which the prosecutor, Clark Scott, of the same county, alleges is a gross libel on him. The name of the prosecutor does not appear in the publication, but facts and circumstances are recited which he alleges referred to him. Information was made by Scott against Bolen Tuesday of last week, and the accused was held to bail to appear at Court. Messrs. Miner and Boyle will appear on behalf of the Commonwealth, and Messrs. Campbell and Searight for the defence. Notwithstanding the case is one of unusual local interest in that county, the papers of that locality have neglected to publish it.

Removal.—We make our apology to the Pennsylvania Insurance Company for not before announcing the removal of its business office to 197½ Wood street, in the second floor of the National Bank of Commerce Building. This office is more eligible and spacious than the former one. Under the present management the institution is growing in favor with the community, and doing a healthy and safe business.

LET US PROTECT OURSELVES.

The physical structure of the strongest human being is vulnerable everywhere. Our bodies are endowed by nature with a certain negative power, which protects them, to some extent, from unwholesome influences; but this protection is imperfect, and cannot be safely relied on in unhealthy regions, or under circumstances of more than ordinary danger. Therefore, it is wisdom; it is prudence; it is common sense to provide against such contingencies by taking an antidote in advance; in other words, by fortifying the system with HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS—the most complete protective against all the epidemic and endemic maladies that has ever been administered in any country. As a remedy for Dyspepsia, there is no medicine that will compare with it. Whoever suffers the pangs of indigestion, anywhere on the face of the earth where HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS can be procured, does so voluntarily; for, as surely as truth exists, this invaluable TONIC and ALTERATIVE would restore his disordered stomach to a healthy condition. To the nervous it is also especially recommended, and in cases of confirmed constipation it also affords speedy and permanent relief. In all cases of fever and ague the BITTERS is more potent than any amount of quinine, while the most dangerous cases of bilious fever yield to its wonderful properties. Those who have tried the medicine will never use another, for any of the ailments which the HOSTETTER BITTERS professes to subdue. To those who have not made the experiment we cordially recommend an early application to the BITTERS whenever they are stricken by disease of the digestive organs.

CURE OF FISTULA.

DR. KEYSER: I write to thank you for your kindness and scientific management of my disease, for which I called to consult you some time in January last. You will remember that I had a complication of diseases, which finally ended in a terrible fistula, which I had been advised to "let alone," on account of a harassing cough, which it was feared might fasten it on my lungs. I knew that the peculiar mode of treating diseases like mine was by a cutting operation, which, if successful at all, would naturally throw the disease upon the lungs or some other vital organ, on account of the suddenness of the cure and the immediate check to the discharge, which I believed was a salutary provision of nature to get rid of some morbid condition of the system. I feel perfectly satisfied that your method of treatment, purifying the system, and local applications to the fistulous part, must cure, if anything could, without cutting, which I find it did, and I am happy to report myself well in every particular, with sounder and better health than I have had for years. I would also add that the applications you made were almost painless, and have left me a new man, with all the energies and vigor of restored health.

Yours, gratefully, I—— C——.

640 MILES

OF THE

UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD

Are now finished and in operation. Sixty miles of track have been laid this spring, and the work along the whole line between the Atlantic and Pacific States is being pushed forward more rapidly than ever before. More than twenty thousand men are employed, and it is not impossible that the entire track, from Omaha to Sacramento, will be finished in 1869 instead of 1870. The means provided are ample, and all that energy, men and money can do to secure the completion of this

GREAT NATIONAL WORK,

At the earliest possible day, will be done.

The UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD COMPANY receive:

I.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of the right of way, and all necessary timber and other materials found along the line of its operations.

II.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of 12,800 acres of land to the mile, taken in alternate sections on each side of its road. This is on absolute donation, and will be a source of large revenue in the future.

III.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of United States Thirty-year Bonds, amounting to from $16,000 to $48,000 per mile, according to the difficulties to be surmounted on the various sections to be built. The Government takes a second mortgage as security, and it is expected that not only the interest, but the principal amount may be paid in services rendered by the Company in transporting troops, mails, &c. The Interest is now much more than paid in this way, besides securing a great saving in time and money to the Government.

IV.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of the right to issue its own FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS, to aid in building the road, to the same amount as the U. S. Bonds, issued for the same purpose, and no more. The Government permits the Trustees for the First Mortgage Bondholders to deliver the Bonds to the Company only as the road is completed, and after it has been examined by United States Commissioners and pronounced to be in all respects a first-class Railroad, laid with a heavy T rail, and completely supplied with depots, stations, turnouts, car-shops, locomotives, cars, &c.

V.—A CAPITAL STOCK SUBSCRIPTION from the stockholders, of which OVER EIGHT MILLION DOLLARS have been paid in upon the work already done, and which will be increased as the wants of the Company require.

VI.—NET CASH EARNINGS on its Way Business, that already amount to MORE THAN THE INTEREST on the First Mortgage Bonds. These earnings are no indication of the vast through business that must follow the opening of the line to the Pacific, but they certainly prove that upon such a property, costing nearly three times their amount, ARE SECURE BEYOND ANY CONTINGENCY.

FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS

The Company have abundant means in their treasury, and make no appeal to the public to purchase their Bonds, as the daily subscriptions are entirely satisfactory; but they submit that, for entire security and liberal returns, there is certainly no better investment in the market.

The Union Pacific Bonds are for $1,000 each, and have coupons attached. They have thirty years to run, and bear annual interest, payable on the first days of January and July, at the Company's Office in the City of New York, at the rate of six per cent. in gold. The Principal is payable in gold at maturity. The price is 102. At the present rate of gold, these bonds pay an annual income on their cost of NEARLY NINE PER CENT.

The Company reserve the right to advance the price of their bonds to a rate above par at any time, and will not fill any orders or receive any subscriptions on which the money has not been actually paid at the Company's office before the time of such advance.

Parties subscribing will remit the par value of the bonds and the accrued interest in currency at the rate of six per cent. per annum, from the date on which the last coupon was paid. Subscriptions will be received in Pittsburgh by

HART, CAUGHEY & Co., corner of Wood and Third Streets;
S. McCLEAN & CO., 75 Fourth Street;
PH. R. MERTZ, corner 5th and Wood Sts.;
ROBINSON BROS., 78 Fourth street;

AND IN NEW YORK

At the Company's Office, No. 20 Nassau Street, and by

JOHN J. CISCO & SON, Bankers, No. 59 Wall Street, and by the Company's advertised agents throughout the United States.

Remittances should be made in drafts or other funds par in New York, and the Bonds will be sent free of charge by return express. Parties subscribing through local agents, will look to them for their safe delivery.

A PAMPHLET AND MAP FOR 1868 has just been published by the Company, giving fuller information than is possible in an advertisement, respecting the Progress of the Work, the Resources of the Country traversed by the Road, the Means for Construction, and the Value of the Bonds, which will be sent free on application at the Company's offices, or to any of the advertised agents.

TO GLASS MANUFACTURERS.— The undersigned having secured the sole Agency for the sale of the celebrated
COPLEY POT CLAY.
Are now prepared to furnish it in any quantity to those wishing to procure this superior article. During fifteen years' use of this Clay, we have arrived at such proportions as we believe makes it a better article for pots than any in the market, we having secured an average stand of SIX, EIGHT and TEN MONTHS. We will furnish receipes for the proportion of the mixture of this Clay to persons purchasing. The Clay is ground and moulded in lumps for delivery.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }

Goverment securities suffered a heavy decline to-day, averaging from ¼ to ¾ per cent, but at the close of business the market rallied again and closed firmer. The amounts now held by speculators is enormous, and any advance in the quotations is quickly followed up by these parties to realize. It is now very doubtful whether any higher quotations can be established, even under the present easy money market quotations are entirely sustained by speculators, while the people in the interior are selling out their bonds now in the hope of buying in at lower rates. In seven-thirties a lively business of exchanging is going on and parties are anxious to avail themselves of the privalege of the exchange into gold bonds, although the time is now extended.

Gold is rather weak, and any attempt to advance quotations is quickly frustrated by large offers to sell. The market is at present heavily oversold, and those who sold at 141¼ or a shade less, may be content to cover a little below 140, and thus keep the market steady at about 140, the price generally conceded as to be the lowest poin reached for rome time to come.

Stocks are dull and lower, except North Western common and preferred, which have advanced some 2 per cent. within a day or two. The balance of the list has rather declined about 1 per cent.. and Express stocks are also lawer, from the decrease in the earnings; other business being dull it is quite natural to notice a falling off in the receipts of these companies.

Money easier. Business very quiet.

Closing quotations as received by Ph. R Mertz, were as follows:

Gold, 140¼; 1881 bonds, 117⅞; 1862 5-20s, 113; 1864 do, 110¾; 1865 do, 111⅛; new, 1865 and 1867, 113⅜; Ten Forties, 107¼; Seven Thirties, 109⅝.

New York Central, 134¼; Erie, 68⅝; Michigan Southern, 91½; Cleveland & Pittsburgh, 90⅛; Northwestern, common, 69; Preferred, 79; Chicago & Rock Island, 105½; Pittsburgh & Fort Wayne, 111¾; Ohio & Mississippi Certificates, 30⅛; Merchants Union Express, 26⅛; Western Union Telegraph, 34; Corydon, 34; Quicksilver, 25; Quartz Hill, 1,15.

—The Secretary of the Treasury gives notice to holders of Seven Thirties who desire to avail themselves of their right to convert the same into Five Twenties, that the notes must be presented at the Treasury Department at Washington, or at the office of the Assistant Treasurer of the States at New York, as follows:

"The notes that matured on the 15th of June must be presented on or before the 15th of July. That notes that become due on the 15th of July must be presented on or before the first day of August. The bonds to be issued in exchange for the notes will bear interest from the first day of July, 1868, and the interest on the notes will be calculated accordingly. The bonds will be of the issue of 1867 or 1868, as may be preferred, and they will be issued in the order in which the notes are presented."

—The Philadelphia Ledger, of Wednesday, says: There is still rather more demand for money, but we observe no change in rates, which still rule at 4 to 5 per cent. on call, and at 5 to 6 per cent. for prime discounts. The causes which produced this ease are still in active operation, and will not lose their force until after the payment of the July interest on the National debt, and the usual large payments on account of interest and dividends by States and corporations. These dividends will in a large degree be reinvested, and for some time cheap money and higher prices for for investment securities will be the natural order of things.

—Closing quotations received by James T. Brady & Co.:

Gold, 140⅛; U. S. 6's, 1881's, 117¾; 5-20's, 1862, 113; 5-20's, 1864, 110⅝; 5-20's, 1865, 111; 10-40's, 107; 5-20's, January and July, '65, 113⅜; 5-20's, January and July, '67 113¾; June 7-30's, 109⅝; July 7-30's, 109⅝; May Comp., 1865, 119,-30.

CENTRAL LIVE-STOCK MARKET,

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
THURSDAY, June 25, 1868. }

CATTLE.

Business was unusually active at these yards this week, and with unusually large arrivals, the sales were larger than during any preceding week since last fall, and while prices were lower, everything presented a more cheerful appearance, and the number of dealers in attendance, was larger than for at least six, and probably nine months. Another important matter to be taken into consideration is the fact that the cattle on sale as a general thing, were of good quality, including a large number of prime Missouri, Ohio and Kentucky steers; there was one drove, of exceedingly fine Ohio steers on sale, but the owner being unable to get his price, shipped them east; he was offered nine cents, which he refused asking ten. If these cattle had been here, five or six weeks since, they would no doubt have brought ten cents readily, but within that time stock of all kinds has dropped fully one cent per pound, The number of cattle sold since the date of our last report reach nearly one thousand head, the great bulk of which were shipped to New York and Philadelphia.

One thing that tended no doubt to increased the arrivals this week was the fact that the Fort Wayne & Chicago Railroad Co., reduced the freights on live stock between Chicago and this point, to forty cents per 100 pounds within the last few days. The fact that freights have been entirely too high has been a serious drawback to business at these yards all season, and while it would have been better, had the reduction have been made long since, it is better late than never.

As will be seen by reference to sales, prices ranged lower than last week; indeed there has been a decline of fully fifty cents per cwt. At the decline, however, there was a very fair demand, there being a goodly number of eastern buyers in attendance. We noticed several sales of pretty tair fat cattle at 7½ to 7¾ which a month ago would have brought 8½ and probably 9. Stock cattle may be quoted at 4½ to 5¾. We quote the following sales:

Holmes Lafferty & Co., sold for E. Webb to Landes 41 head of good stockers averaging 950 at 5¾, 20 head of fairish stock for Miller to Casterline at 6; 10 head for Daud to Pidcock & Co; at 7,25; 15 for Millegan & Steenbaugh to same at 5; 5 for same to Elemer at 5½; 2 for Doud to same at 8.

Berry sold Crosby & Aull 51 head of good stock steers from Chicago, at 5⅝.

Thompson sold 54 head of good fat steers to weighing 62,575, to Crosby and Aull at 7⅝.

Hedges & Taylor sold 54 head of farish stock for Knox to Landers weighing 64,900 at 6½; 36 head for Bates to Hershy, weighing 34,725 at 5½; 15 for Griffin to James Aull weighing 17,000 at 7,55; 20 head of very common for Forbes to McGavery at 5½.

Bond & Simpson sold 101 head of good fat Illinois steers, averaging about 1,200, to W. Hedges at 7½,

Hood & Graham 17 head of good Ohio steers, weighing 1,230, to Stowffer at 8,10.

Sultzaough to Stauffer 16 head weighing 17,550 at 7c, and 2 bulls at 5.

Judy sold 18 head of good cattle to Miller, weighing 20,850 at 7,25.

Braham to Miller, 16 head of good fat cattle weighing 20,625 at 7⅛.

Berry to Klemens & Maynes, 81 head of fairish Chicago steers, weighing 89,875 at 7.

Berry sold 20 head of good butchers stock weighing 21;475 to Young at 7,25.

Heskett sold 17 head of prime steers, weighing 21,825, te Davis at 8¼, 8 to J Major at 7½ 18 to Smith & Havery at 7,75; 4 to Moses & Co. at 7, 7 to Musselman at 7.

Daniels to Croft 17 head weighing 16,100.

Hunter to Kline 34 head of good fat steers, weighing 41,925 at 8⅛.

Daniels to Lavick & Co., 21 head weighing a little over 1,000, at 7,80; same to Klemen & Co., 2 at 8.

Goodwin to Landis 11 head at 8,65; 6 at 8.

Goodwin to Landis 16 head, weighing 20,150 8,30, and 1 at 8.

Hunter to Klemen 22 head, weighing 23,200, at 7½; same to same 54, weighing 51,725, at 7,50.

Walker to Klemen 32 head good Southern Ohio steers, averaging about 1,250, at $100 per head, delivered in Philadelphia.

SHEEP.

There has been a very fair business done in this class of stock this week, the sales, in the aggregate, being fully up to the usual average. In prices there has been but little change; prime fat Sheep sold at from 4½ to 5¼c, gross, while inferior and common ruled at from 2¾ to 3¼c. We are cognizant of one New York firm having bought close on to 5,000 (4,990) head, at an average of 4¼, the range being from 3,50 to 5,35. A Philadelphia dealer bought about 2,000 head, none of which, it is said, cost above 4c. The supply was not very large during the early part of the week, but since then the arrivals have been quite liberal, and to-day the supply was somewhat in excess of the demand, the majority of the eastern buyers having bought all they wanted. The following are the sales:

Holmes, Lafferty & Co. sold 97 to Aull & Myers for Ogle at 2¾c per pound; 105 for Sargeant to Pidcock & Co. at 3,35; 59 for Holmes & Pfieffer to same buyer at 4¾; 85 for Weisal to Aull & Myers at 3c.

Hedges & Taylor sold 200 head for Jones & Brothy at 4½; 115 for Bell to Pidcock at 3½; 355 for Orbersman & Merriman to Pearce at 3,90; 161 for Watts to Maynes at 3¾.

Pidcock & Erisman bought 337 from Cook & Paxton at 4,25; 210 from Hedges & Taylor at 2,80; 210 from Myers & Needy at 4⅜; 120 from Calhoun, Sheep and Lambs, at 4,50; 234 from S. Johnston at 3,75; 220 from Brinkley at 4,75; 100 from G. Crim at 3,50; 106 from J. Crim at 3; 215 from Aurentz at 4,95; 184 from Robbins at 4⅜; 177 from J. W. Fort at 4,25; 212 from Patterson at 3,10; 205 from Idinger & Tompkins at 4,25; 215 from same at 3; 189 from McPherson at 5; 201 from Robinson at 5,35; 201 from Wyley at 4; 185 from Smith & Talmage at 4; 206 from same at 3; 222 from Cook & Co. at 4,75; 399 from W. Smith at 5⅛; 115 from Hedges & Taylor at 3,50; 202 from Thomas Allen at 4; 254 from Wilson at 5; 204 from Smith & Talmage at 4,25; 105 from Holmes Lafferty & Co. at 2,35; 100 from Adams at 5.

Smith & Talmage sold 137 for Vetter to Aull & Myers at 4; 30 for same to Barclay at 5,25; 27 for same to Johnston at 4,25; 104 for Farmer to Quinn at 4; 110 for Ruckenkaugh to Pearce at $2 per head; 186 for Scattergood to Aull & Myers for $425—for the lot.

M. Johnston sold 212 head of prime Coschocton county Sheep, averaging 88 lbs, to Pearce & Co. at 5,50.

HOGS.

The market for Hogs has been rather dull this week, and ruled in favor of buyers. Compared with last week, prices have declined fully half a cent per pound; to-day there were but very buyers for prime Philadelphia Hogs at 9, while last week and early this week, the same class of stock sold at 9½ to 9⅞. New York Hogs may be quoted at 7¼ to 8. We quote the following sales:

Holmes, Lafferty & Co. sold 398 head for Crosby to Emerick & Co. at 8,80; 83 for Hains to W. Hedges at $8,05; 12 for same to Aull & Myers at $15 per head; 54 for Weisal to Hedges at 8,50.

Hedges & Taylor sold 24 head for Oakessen to Hedges at 7⅝; 56 for Middleworth & Frost to same at 8,70; 331 for Fort, Haven & Co. to same at 8,75.

McAllister sold 52 head to Hedges at 7,75; Irwin 82 to same at 8; Quick to same at 7; Conklin to same 410 at 9,10; Morris to same 130 at 8,05; Calhoun to same 110 at 8,75; Knichs to same 50 at 8,50; Emerick & Co. 73 at 7 80; Hunt to same 49 at 7⅛.

W. Hedges sold 96 to Singer & Imhoff at 9,10; 147 to Gilchreist & Co. at 9,50; 97 to Casselberry at 9,80; 96 to Gilchreist & Co. at 9,80; 93 to Singer & Imhoff at 9,80.

Moorhouse to Pidcock & Erisman 112 at 8,60.

Gilchreist & Co. 190 from Allerton at 9,60; 200 from Fry & Reed at 9,75; 96 from W. Hedges at 9,80; 95 from Gregg at 9,75; 89 from Allerton at 9,75; 98 from Nichols at 9,65; 93 from Avery at 9,75; 100 from Stemmell at 9,75.

Singer & Imhoff bought 86 from Avery at 9,55; 12 from Pidcock at 9,75; 188 from Tilden at 9,70; 93 from W. Hedges at 9,80; 85 from Foster at 9,10; 106 from Griffen at 8,80; 29 from Hedges at 9,35; 100 from Robbins at 8,95; 10 from Hedges at 9,25; 96 from same at 9,60; 102 from same at 9,75; 273 from L. H. Phillips at 9,25; 190 from Hedges & Taylor at 6,95. Shipped 282 from Chicago, 8,75 to 9, there.

The Flying Man.

[From London Engineering.]

At a recent meeting of the Aeronautical Society, it was announced by Mr. Wenham, that one of the members of the society, Mr. Spencer, had already constructed an apparatus by the aid of which he had accomplished the feat of raising himself from the ground level and performing a horizontal flight of sixty feet, and it was further stated by Mr. Wenham, that Mr. Spencer expected to fly the length of the Crystal Palace during the meeting of the Aeronautical Society, to be held there on the 25th inst. Since the above announcement was made, we have received from Mr. Spencer some particulars of the apparatus employed by him. It consists of a pair of wings of rather small size, arranged so that they can be worked by the arms, and a large fan-shaped tail of a very light construction connected to the body by basket-work, so that it stands at an angle of about three degrees with the horizontal. Mr. Spencer does not propose to fly in the ordinary sense of the term. He uses his apparatus by taking a short, quick run, this run being continued until, by pressure of the air against the under surface of the tail, he is raised from the ground. He then, by using the wings, maintains the momentum which he has acquired as long as possible, and is thus enabled to skim along at a short distance above the ground. Mr. Spencer commenced his operations by practicing long jumps without the aid of the apparatus, and he then commenced using the wings, and finally added the tail. By continued practice, and from time to time making alterations in his apparatus, Mr. Spencer has been enabled to extend considerably his aerial flights or "skims," and we were informed by him a few days ago that he had lately accomplished a horizontal flight of 180 feet, starting and alighting at the ground level. Mr. Spencer is now engaged in completing a new apparatus, which he hopes to finish in time for the exhibition of the Aeronautical Society at the Crystal Palace, and we look forward with some interest to witnessing his performance.

The Mormon Nursery in Wales.

The following appears in the Pall Mall Gazette:

"We recorded the other evening a stray piece of news which probably attracted little attention in England, but which, if it fell into the hands of a quick American writer, might be made the basis of a very interesting work. As it is very short, we may venture to repeat it: 'Six hundred and fifty Mormon emigrants sailed from Liverpool on Saturday for the Salt Lake, by way of New York. A large proportion of the emigrants were women.' Any American book-maker who wished to do a clever thing had only to go to Liverpool after reading this paragraph and there make inquiries about the Mormons. He would probably be referred to Wales, and if he pursued his journey thither he would soon discover that he had hit upon the large training-ground of Mormondom. He would find that we rear the followers of Brigham Young and that America gets the credit of them. A thrilling picture of the frightful state of social life in Great Britain might be drawn from the presence among us of strange sects. Wales is a great deal nearer to the heart of England than Salt Lake or Oneida Creek is to anything which deserves to be called 'American;' and an enterprising traveller, gifted with a lithe and sinewy style, might easily delude a portion of his countrymen into the belief that the Mormon nursery in Wales can be safely taken as an example of the relations which exist between the sexes all over the country. If he did this, and did it well, he would deserve to be considered a very 'smart' man, for—to use a common phrase—he would have paid us back in our own coin. We send ship loads of Mormons to America and then write books to prove that Mormonism is the natural fruit of the loose principles which prevail in America."

There is a mystery surrounding Calcraft, the public hangman of England, which the popular dread of his terrible vocation makes horrible and disgusting. The loathing inspired by the office which he holds is common in every country, and has been in every age; but, if we may credit the testimony of an anonymous correspondent of the London Telegraph, Calcraft, at least, deserves none of the hatred and aversion which is lavished upon all of his calling when that is made a distinct profession. The correspondent is minister of the church in which Calcraft worships, and he says that a more worthy creature does not exist. He is called a good and tender-hearted man, an habitual and devout attendant at church, where his white head and venerable appearance are pleasantly conspicuous, though his identity is, of course, unknown to but few. He is modest and unassuming, by trade a shoemaker and you might deal with him all your life,, and have no more idea that he was the common hangman than that he was the Grand Lama of Thibet. He is a man of very simple and straightforward mind, fulfilling all the relations of domestic and social life in a kindly and affectionate manner. This is the description given by one who knows the man; yet in the vulgar mind he is the embodiment of heartlessness and all that is vile. This feeling is a relic of those dark days when disgusting mutilation was part of the duty of the executioner, and when that officer was called upon to do official murder more often than to vindicate justice. Where law has ever been supreme, as in this country, no odium has been attached in the popular mind to the duty.

Concerning bridges over the Ohio river, the Cincinnati Commercial says:

If the interests of the millions who are immediately interested in maintaining the navigation of this valuable avenue of commerce as free as possible from obstructions, are not worthy of consideration, it is time that they should know it. It is true that it will cost a little more to construct a span of five hundred feet than it will to construct one of three hundred feet; but it is likewise true that the erection of numerous piers, at various places along the river, only three hundred feet instead of five hundred feet apart, will cost the people a vast deal more, to be paid in the shape of extra insurance, extra losses by accidents, and extra price of transportation on this river, through all time. It is of national importance that the Ohio river should be impaired as little as possible; and members of Congress, if they look to the general good, will pause ere they fasten upon the country a system of bridges which will seriously damage a navigation upon which about four hundred millions of dollars worth of property are now annually conveyed. What is the use of the gains of science and engineering experience in bridge building, if these are to be discarded in connection with this great highway of commerce.

Counterfeit one-hundred dollar bills on the Ohio National Bank of Cincinnati; have made their appearance at Leavenworth, Kansas, having been put in circulation west of that point. On comparing one of them with a genuine, it was found that under the words "This Note," near the upper left hand corner, there were four white spaces, where there should have been but three. Otherwise the counterfeit appeared to be nearly perfect.

A Canadian Miracle—A Man Fed by the Virgin.

A Canadian paper, the Unis des Crulons, relates the following curious story;

A young man named Joseph Le Clere, son of a farmer living in the Township of Somerset, Eastern Townships, aged about thirty years, and dumb from his birth, who is described as a "model of piety," though a little imbecile, left his father's house on the 2d of May, and, to the great alarm and solicitude of his parents, could not be found anywhere up to the 18th of the same month.

On this day ten men went out in search of the truant, and, after some search, found him on the banks of the Riviere Noire, not far from its junction with the Becancour. He was without shoes, and lightly clad: but, although the weather for some time previous had been almost wintry, he did not seem to have suffered from cold. To the eager questions put to him by the discoverers, he gave the following account of himself: Seeing that he had lost his way, he lay down and considered how he might best employ his time. He then set to work to clear the bush, and had actually succeeded in making about a quarter of an acre of ground tolerably presentable. He averred that he had never suffered the least from hunger; that a tall lady in white, very beautiful and amiable, had every day brought him two supplies of food, consisting of a sort of large round biscuits, far better than any biscuits he had ever seen before, She came to him, flying, and at night covered him carefully with a large quilt, which kept him quite warm. All this he related in a simple, natural manner, without any sign of deception.

The article concludes thus:

These are the certain facts. Who can explain them otherwise than by a mysterious protection of Heaven? If not, we must start many suppositions, and it is more natural to believe that the Holy Virgin condescended to take care of this young man and to restore him in safety to his family as a reward for virtue.

A very pretty incident is related of a canary bird by a Georgia paper. The door of the bird's cage was occasionally left open, that he might enjoy the freedom of the room. One day he happened to light upon the mantel shelf whereupon was a mirror. Here was a new discovery of the most profound interest. He gazed long and curiously at himself, and came to the conclusion that he had found a mate. Going back to his cage he selected a seed from its box, and brought it in its bill as an offering to the stranger. In vain the canary exerted himself to make his new-found friend partake, and becoming weary of that, tried another tack. Stepping back a few inches from the glass, he poured forth his sweetest notes, pausing now and then for a reply. None came, and moody and disgusted he flew back to his perch, hanging his head in shame and silence for the rest of the day, and although the door was repeatedly left open, he refused to come out again.

On Thursday last three persons named Ducelle were poisoned under mysterious circumstances in Shoreham, Vt. The parties were two brothers and their mother, and it appears that one of the men, who was a mechanic, having occasion to leave his shop for a short time, divested himself of his apron, and upon his return found a bottle containing a liquid under it, whereupon a consultation ensued between the brothers and the matron, and all of them, feeling convinced that the contents of the bottle were a spiritous liquor and not fatal, partook of it slightly. One of the young men survived the drinking but a couple of hours, while the remainder of the family, at latest advices, were in a critical condition. Some parties have been arrested, on suspicion of placing the liquid within the reach of the Ducelle family with a felonious intent.

A Connecticut paper says: "An amusing attempt at suicide was made near the poor house on the banks of the Yantic, in Norwich, on Monday, by a man about thirty years of age. The man would wade into the Yantic up to his knees, and begin to stoop down, when his wife would plunge in and pull him out, all the while calling piteously for help. Then the two would stand on the river bank awhile, talking earnestly, when the husband, heedless of the beseechings of his wife, would tear himself from her arms and again plunge into the dark waters, with the fury of a maniac, which would, however, be cooled off by the time he got in above his knees. The wife would again lead him out, and endeavor to persuade him to live a little longer, and he was last seen going home with his faithful spouse."

One of the great achievements of the age, the great railway over Mont Cenis, between France and Italy, has been completed, and cars now pass over that picturesque and celebrated route in about five hours. The speed is between twelve and thirteen miles an hour—quite enough for such a highway. One of the curiosities of the line is that the trains need no engine for half the way—that is, they go down on each side by their own momentum, regulated, of course, by brakes.

MISCELLANEOUS.

FOUND.

That after repeated trials of other remedies, Roback's Stomach Bitters, Blood Purifier and Blood Pills are the best medicines extant to cure the diseases for which they are recommended.

Sold by all Druggists Everywhere.

PILES.

There is no medicine in use so efficacous as Dr. Roback's Blood Purifier and Blood Pills for the permanent cure of Blind or Bleeding Piles; they strike at the root of disease, thereby removing the cause.

Sold by all Druggists Everywhere.

TEMPERANCE.

There is, perhaps, no one thing that has done so much to promote the cause of temperance as that gentle stimulating tonic, Roback's Stomach Bitters; they strengthen and invigorate without producing the ill effects of alcoholic stimulants.

Sold by all Druggists Everywhere.

LIVER PILLS

Are Pills that have a direct and powerful action on the liver, and relieve any inactivity or congested state of that all important organ upon which depedds the whole process of digestion. The importance, then, of procuring a Pill that shall have such direct action without the ill effects of mercury, is manifest to every one; such Pills are Roback's Blood Pills; they are warranted purely vegetable, and can with certainty be relied upon, and are safe at all times.

Sold by all Druggists Everywhere.

INDIGESTION

Is but another name for Dyspepsia, and the parent of many ills. Roback's Stomach Bitters taken in wine-glass-full doses, directly after each meal, will surely effect a permanent cure. Do not take our word for it, but try them.

Sold by all Druggists Everywhere.

NIGHT MARE

Is one of the many diseases of which Dyspepsia is the parent. To effect a cure persons should avoid hearty food at night, and take a wine glass-full of Roback's Stomach Bitters on retiring to bed.

Sold by all Druggists Everywhere.

RENOVATE.

During the Spring months it is one of the regular household duties to renovate, and, in the multiplicity of other duties one's own self is, in a great measure, overlooked; thousands of valuable lives might be prolonged, and many doubtless saved from premature graves by thoroughly renovating the system with Dr. Roback's Blood Pills, Stomach Bitters and Blood Purifier.

Sold by all Druggists Everywhere.

MELANCHOLY

Is one of the many disorders of the nervous system, arising from a low state of the constitutional health or severe prostration after long continued sickness, and requires invigorating remedies like Roback's Stomach Bitters to restore the nerves to their natural vitality.

Sold by all Druggists Everywhere.

WHO SELLS THEM?

The Agents for the sale of ROBACK'S BLOOD PILLS, STOMACH BITTERS and BLOOD PURIFIER are all Druggists everywhere.

SECURITY AND COMFORT FOR THE TRAVELING COMMUNITY.

J. B. HARRIS' SAFETY FIRE JACKET,

Car Heater and Moderator,

For SMOKE AND HOT AIR FLUES, dispensing with the use of Stoves and Fires in or about the Passenger or Baggage Cars, with the attachment to graduate the heat to any temperature that may be desired without the possibility of firing the car or cars to which the Jacket may be attached.

Having obtained of the United States Letters Patent for a Safety Jacket which is warranted to resist the most intense heat that may be applied to it in the position and purpose for which it is intended. It is a sure protection from accidents by fire, originating from defective flues, or where iron pipes are used as conductors for smoke or heat. It is applicable to all piping that may become overheated, and is warranted to give perfect satisfaction where wood or other combustible material may be placed in close proximity thereto. I am now ready to apply my invention to stores, dwellings, facteries, ships, steamboats, railroad cars, &c., wherever pipes as conductors are made dangerous by being overheated and security desired. I will sell, on application, rights to manufacture or to use the above invention; also, territorial rights, to such as may wish to engage in selling privileges, either by State or county.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Daily Prayer Meeting.—From 12 M. to 12:30 o'clock at the Methodist Church, Fifth street, next door to GAZETTE office.

A four-inch water pipe is being laid on Union avenue, Allegheny.

The offices of the United States Marshal and District Attorney and the Custom House have been re-carpeted.

Meets To-night.—The Allegheny City Republican Executive Committee will meet this evening in the Treasurer's office, City Building.

To be Graded and Paved.—The work of paving Harmony street, which is the line between Birmingham and East Birmingham, will be commenced next week. The expense of paving it is to be divided equally between the two boroughs.

Larceny of Tools.—Nicholas Jacoby, a wagon maker, having a shop on the corner of Fountain and Chatham streets, alleges that during his absence Wm. Ferguson entered and appropriated fifteen dollars worth of tools. A warrant was issued.

Selling Liquor on Sunday.—Charles Williams made information yesterday before Alderman M'Masters against Peter Minehart, who keeps a saloon on the corner of Morton and Penn streets, Ninth ward, for selling liquor on Sunday. A warrant was issued.

Caught at Last.—On the 6th of December last, Margaret Gibson made information before Alderman Taylor charging Alice Hall with the larceny of a lot of clothing, valued at twenty-eight dollars. Yesterday an officer succeeded in arresting the accused, who was held for a hearing.

Birmingham Gas Works.—In order to supply the increasing demand for gas on the South Side, the Company have been compelled to increase the capacity of the works. The new reservoir has been sunk to a depth of thirty-three feet and the masons are at work on the wall.

Assault and Battery.—Mary Murray made information before the Mayor, charging Albert Lally with assault and battery. The parties reside in Virgin alley, in the Tenth ward. The prosecutrix alleges that the accused beat her and her daughter with a club. A warrant was issued.

False Pretence.—J. R. Foster, who keeps a book store on Fifth street, alleges that Wm. Diehl, Jr., collected the money on a lot of books which were sold by subscription and appropriated it to his own use. The accused was arrested and will have a hearing before Alderman M'Masters this morning.

Repairs.—The Nicolson pavement on Wood street, which was somewhat disarranged in consequence of the street not having been allowed time to settle after the sewer was put down before the pavement was laid, is undergoing repairs. The crossings are to be raised similar to those on Fifth street.

Formidable Petitions for the pardon of Messrs. Campbell and Miller, of the Evening Mail, who were sentenced by a Philadelphia Court for libel, are in circulation. The Governor will hardly refuse to listen to the united voices of the press, bar and business community of this city, in asking for the pardon.

Child Drowned—Coroner's Inquest.—Coroner Clawson yesterday held an inquest on the body of John Schriner, son of Louis Schriner, residing in the Eighth ward, Allegheny. The child was drowned Wednesday evening in a tub of water in Henry Klunk's tannery. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death by drowning.

Fast Driving.—George Blair and Joseph Dobbs were arrested yesterday on a charge of fast driving on Wood street. They were taken before the Mayor, who discharged them. The prosecutor, we presume, failed to make out the case, as the Mayor has expressed his determination to fine every person to the full extent of the law convicted of the offence before him.

Lost the Road.—The original plot or plan of lots in Birmingham having been destroyed and not having been placed on record, the location of the old Brownsville road became not only a matter of doubt but also of controversy, and in order to settle the matter the borough regulator, J. W. Patterson, surveyed and relocated it from Meadow street east a distance of four miles.

Assaulted by Women.—George S. McPherson came to the Mayor's office yesterday and made information, charging Jane and Rebecca Sinclair with assault and battery. He alleges that he went into a saloon at the corner of Water and Market streets, where he got into a difficulty with the accused, one of them striking him with a poker and the other throwing a glass of whisky in his face. A warrant was issued for the Sinclairs.

"Bill Ignored."—In the case of the Commonwealth vs. Andrew G. McPherson, for fornication and bastardy, the grand jury, after having heard the testimony on the part of the Commonwealth, returned the bill "ignoramus," and drected the county to pay the costs. Mr. McPherson is an influential citizen of Washington county, and has many friends who will doubtless be glad to learn that the charge against him was without foundation.

Aggravated Assault and Battery.—John Hanlon made information before the Mayor yesterday, charging James Donahue, Neely Burns, Thomas Sullivan and others with aggravated assault and battery. He alleged that he went into a saloon on Wylie street Wednesday evening, and got into a difficulty with the accused, when they attacked and beat him in a most shameful manner. Burns was arrested, but before a hearing was had the case was compromised and Burns discharged.

Another Man Missing.—Some two weeks since Mr. Arnhold, clerk for the firm of Marks & Trauerman, cattle dealers in Allegheny, took his departure for Allegheny city and has not yet been heard from. His employers are of the opinion that he has gone to Europe, and if the surmises prove correct, they will probably lose heavily by the operation. He was confidential clerk for the firm and done all the collecting. They do not know to what extent they have been victimized. The young man is reported to be a fast liver.

Discharged.—The two gentlemen who were arrested on Wednesday night charged with practicing a confidence game on Mr. Kraig, an account of which appeared in the Gazette of yesterday, had a hearing yesterday morning and were discharged. It appeared at the hearing that the accused, instead of being "confidence" men, were respectable citizens from the country, and were in the city soliciting subscriptions to the Chartiers Valley Railroad. Mr. Kraig was doubtless victimized, but he was evidently mistaken in having these parties arrested.

Cross-Suits.—Peter McCabe, according to an information made against him yesterday, by Wm. I. Simpson before Alderman McMasters, entered the livery stable of the prosecutor a few days ago, desiring to hire a horse and buggy to attend a pic-nic. Simpson, however, for reasons best known to himself, refused to hire the turnout, whereupon McCabe became very angry and pitched into him, but came out second best and found himself kicked into the street. He immediately made information for assault and battery before Alderman Butler against the livery stable keeper, who in turn entered a similar charge before Alderman McMasters against him. A warrant was issued.

THE COURTS.

Court of Quarter Sessions—Judge Stowe.

Court met at the usual hour Thursday morning, and the

was taken up. The circumstances will be remembered. A "strike" having existed among coal miners on the Monongahela river for some time, a number of them, who had been in the employ of John O'Neill, at Pine Run, determined to go to work at the compensation offered, three and a half cents per bushel, and did go to work on Monday, March 30th. On the afternoon of that day a considerable number of miners from other coal works, in the neighborhood of Six Mile Ferry, appeared on the premises of Mr. O'Neill, for the alleged object of forcing the men who had gone to work to again quit. Notice of their approach had been received, and they were met by Mr. O'Neill and some of his employes. A parley took place. The "strikers" were warned to desist from their purpose. They persisted, however, acts of violence were committed, and the result was that one of the attacking miners was killed and another dangerously injured. After repeated warnings, Mr. O'Neill, it is claimed in self-defense, raised a gun and attempted to discharge it. Following this he received a blow or blows and was rendered insensible. Wm. Hart, in the employ of Mr. O'Neill, then discharged a double-barreled shot gun at the attacking party, with the effect stated.

The indictment in the case is for riot, and in it is included a count for aggravated assault and battery. A plea of "not guilty" was entered by the following named defendants: Thos. Nixon, Joseph Amsen, Jonathan Tillott, Geo. Briggs, Anthony Sharkey, Matthias Plott, Thomas Rose, Jas. Bradley and Thos. Pryor. Others indicted were not present for trial.

The Commonwealth was represented by Thos. M. Marshall and John M. Kirkpatrick, Esqs. For the defence John H. Hampton and J. K. Kerr, Esqs.

When the case was first called, on Wednesday, Mr. Hampton moved to quash the indictment as to certain defendants named, viz: John Dufore, Thos. Hope, Samuel Kearney, —— Freemont, John Lepret, Geo. Freeborn, Thos. Pryor, Peter Graham, August Defore, —— Leebrox, Patrick Whalen, John Bradley, Sr., John Bradley, Jr., Jos. Linnell, John Kennedy, John Bonner, Evan O. Williams, Sidney Davis, —— Wolf, —— Rafferty, John Grinley, Alex. Kimmons, James Briggs, John Peach, Robt. Peach, Peter Bulger, Owen M'Laughlin, Thos. Boyle, John Matthews, William Edgerly, Jack Rodgers, Henry Morgan and Thos. Blunt, for the following reasons:

1. That said defendants were never arrested.
2. That said defendants were never examined before a magistrate.
3. That the said named defendants were not held to appear.
4. That said named defendants were included in the indictment for the purpose of preventing their being witnesses for the defendants.

The motion was overruled.

Mr. Kirkpatrick opened the case to the jury rather elaborately, regarding it as of more than ordinary importance in this locality, and gave a brief outline of the circumstances attending the riot or disturbance which resulted in the taking of one life and the endangering of two others.

The following was the evidence elicited:

John O'Neill, sworn—I am in the coal business—proprietor of what is called the Pine Run Coal Works, in Jefferson township, this county, three miles above McKeesport and about twelve miles from the city. On Monday, March 30th, part of my diggers, who had been on a "strike," agreed to go to work; some had cleaned up their rooms in the pit, and some had put out a wagon or two; by noon they had all come out of the pit; while at dinner I saw a body of two or three hundred men coming up the road, marching in army file, with a very large red flag at their head, and a drum beating. When they came up to my house they turned square up the railroad leading to my coal pit: a public road passes alongside the railroad; the track crosses the road. My son, Wm. Hart, (my night-watchman), myself, and one or two others started to the pit on a locomotive and arrived there a little ahead of the crowd, having passed them about half way. I halted them, asking "what do you want; where are you going?" (We had intercepted them on their way to the check-house.) They said they wanted to see my diggers; told them my diggers were not in the pit; they asked where they were; told them they were around on the hill side, that they might go and talk to them as much as they pleased, but they could not come up where I was, at the check-house; they said they would come; told them they would come at their peril—that some of my property had been destroyed, and that a notice has been posted on my engine that my works would be destroyed. Kept them at bay for about half an hour; and went down the hill to where they were and reasoned with them. They were armed with clubs, apparently newly made. Some of the crowd had whiskey, and others sat down and ate cakes, cheese, etc. Some of the crowd who had been behind came up cheering, and the large proportion started off in another direction, to the right. Suspecting that they designed to make a flank movement by getting on a bench of the hill, behind us, I told my son and Mr. Hart to remain where they were, and I started to head them off. I was a little too late; the crowd got ahead of me as I had to cross a ravine; I raised my gun, and told the crowd to keep back; they paid no attention, and I snapped the gun at a large man in front; he caught hold of the gun by the barrel, and gave me a swing, and at this moment I received a blow across the head and was knocked insensible. At the time I raised the gun the crowd in front of me were as thick as they well could be. I was picked up by my son and conveyed to a neighboring house. When I told the crowd that a notice had been put up on my engine house that my works would be destroyed, they replied that my works should never run any more coal—that they would mark me—and made other threats. I have seen many gatherings of coal diggers during "strikes," but this crowd was the worst I ever saw—they used bad language, flourished clubs over their heads, some of them had whisky, and they looked to me dangerous; some did not appear to come up, when others would call them "cowards" and throw sticks and stones at them, and at one time I thought they would get into a row among themselves on this account. At the time I was knocked down the flag was at the foot of the hill; the crowd pretty much all started up the hill, cheering. They had a Captain and other officers; the Captain, when they came to the railroad track, halted them, and "squared them 'round" in military fashion. [The witness identified two of the defendants, Prior and Briggs, as being present. Another of the defendants, Rose, witness stated had been arrested and taken before the Mayor, but could not be identified and was discharged. A few days afterward he went to the coal works for the purpose of making a plot of the scene of the disturbance, when he betrayed himself, and then admitted he was present on the occasion, whereupon he was again arrested.] Saw defendants Prior and Briggs, the former at the foot of the hill, and the latter was pointed out in the crowd. [A photograph of the premises was exhibited to the jury, the witness pointing out different points where the crowd appeared.]

Cross-examined—After the crowd had abused me, using bad language, the proposition was made to allow two of my men to consult with them, or allow two of their men to come up the hill and consult with my men. I refused, against the advice of my son; I believed that if I allowed two of my men to go down they would kill them, and that if I allowed the crowd to send up two men it would be but an entering wedge for the others. A man named Defore, I understood, was the captain of the crowd—he was the one who made the request for a conference. Have not heard of him since. During the parley various threats were made; some one said if they got hold of Laughlin, a man in my employ, they would cut him in two.

Dr. J. A. Herron, sworn—Was called in to see John O'Neill shortly after he was injured; thought him dangerously hurt, and recommended that the family physician be sent for.

Capt. Denny O'Neill, sworn—Am a son of John O'Neil; was in the army three years and thirty days; was at home at the time of this disturbance, on the 30th of March. The first knowledge I had of the procession of men was observing it come up the river road towards our works; heard a drum and saw a red flag; the men were marching in regular file; I was standing on the "tipple;" informed my father, who was at dinner; the procession was halted by the captain when they came to the railroad track, and with a yell the crowd started up the track. Father and I and William Hart, night watchman, got arms, two guns and a revolver; got on a locomotive and started up the railroad track to the check house, passing the crowd on the way; after passing the crowd, they crossed the run and started, with a dash, for the check house. We arrived before them, and when they came up father halted them, and asked what they wanted; they said they wanted to see our diggers; we told them there were no diggers in the pit—that they had all gone home. They then made threats, called my father bad names, and made an attempt to come up the hill. We presented our "field pieces," and they fell back. They then called up to Laughlin, one of our diggers; Laughlin said he was going to work; they asked him at what price; Laughlin said three-and-a-half-cents; they called him a "black-leg," and said that our works should not run. After further parley they said they had come to talk to our diggers; we told them they came in a very disorderly manner. Finally some portion of the crowd, who appeared drunk, came up from the rear, yelling and flourishing clubs; the mob then separated, some going to the right to "flank" us, and some to the left. Father went to head off the flanking party; I told Hart to follow him, as he might get into trouble. Seeing that the great body of the crowd had gone to the right, I started after father and Hart, and when I came up saw that some of the crowd had father down, and were beating him. Hart had a gun, and was motioning to a man in front of him (the one who was killed, named Bulger,) to keep back; Hart raised his gun, but again drew it back; the man still advanced, and Hart fired; a second shot was fired, and a man was wounded. I drew my revolver and fired at a man in front of me, the ball taking effect in his head and passing over the scalp; he ran down the hill. Observed another man with father's gun, pointing and snapping it at me; I drew my revolver, but it missed fire, and noticed that the cylinder would not work; picked up a stone and threw it at the man; he dodged it; threw another stone at him, and he ran down the hill. Went to where father was, raised him to his feet, and examined to ascertain how he was hurt; found in his pocket a small Smith & Wesson revolver, which I took and fired at the crowd, which by this time was retreating hastily down the hill and up the run. Previous to the shooting, in the parley with the crowd, I told them they would come up the hill at their peril—that some of our property had been burned about a month before—that threats had been made to burn more—that they should not come up the hill under any circumstances, and that I would shoot the first man who came up. I had a revolver in my hand; my father had a Spencer carbine. The captain of the crowd asked who I was, if I was one of the "bosses," and spoke about the coal exchange; said he would mark me, having drawn a revolver on him. Before attempting the flank movement, they said they would come again better prepared. [Witness identified Pryor as one of those marching with the crowd.] Father was badly bruised about the head, on the arms and on the legs, and was confined to the house for three weeks. From the check-house to the point where my father was knocked down is one hundred and forty-nine yards.

Cross-examined—The crowd said they came to talk with our diggers; told them they came in a very abrupt and ungentlemanly manner.

Mr. Kerr—In military style?

Witness—Not much military.

Mr. Kerr—Not according to tactics?

Witness—In a sort of rout step.

Mr. Kerr—Do not coal miners usually, in their processions, carry flags, and march to the beat of a drum?

Witness—Believe they do.

Mr. Kerr—Had not this procession a flag—the stars and stripes?

Witness—Yes; a very small one; could hardly see it.

Mr. Kerr—What proportion of the crowd were French?

Witness—They were made up principally of Irish and French.

Dr. McGrew, residing about five miles from the coal works, testified to the nature of Mr. O'Neill's injuries, and to his attendance upon him. He was in a dangerous condition, and a week or ten days elapsed before he was able to be about much.

Wm. Hart, sworn—This witness corroborated the testimony of Mr. O'Neill and son. After detailing what took place up to the time of the "flank movement," he said he followed after Mr. O'Neil; saw him prostrate, and men around him "beating him as if he were a snake." Witness had a gun in his hands, and encountered a large man with a club in his right hand and his coat off and thrown over his left arm; he endeavored to avoid this man; told him to go back, and thinking he might not understand what he said, "motioned" him to go back; still he came on, and when retreat was entirely cut of, witness fired his gun and the man fell, dead; witness said he did not design to kill the man, his aim being higher than he intended. Mr. O'Niell was still surrounded by his assailants, and witness fired another shot which took effect in the thigh of one of the men. At this juncture Denny O'Niell came up, when the crowd retreated down the hill. Witness said that just after firing the second shot, he was caught by the breast of the coat by one of the crowd; he caught the man by the throat, and after "tussling" a little, struck him in the face with his fist. This man, in the language of witness, "went down over the hill."

The witness told a straightforward, plain story, bearing the impress of entire truth in every part. His conduct on the occasion was that of a cool, determined, brave man, acting in defense of himself and seeking to rescue his employer from the hands of assailants.

Before the counsel had finished the examination of Mr. Hart, the hour of adjournment arrived.

Common Pleas—Judge Mellon.

In the case of John Rider vs. Allegheny River Navigation Company the jury found for defendants.

On motion of B. F. Lucas, Esq., Wm. P. Jenks, of Brookville, Jefferson county, was duly qualified and admitted to practice in this Court.

Jacob Mauch vs. Frederick Hahn. This was an action to recover the balance due on a promissory note.

A motion for a new trial was made on the part of plaintiff in the case of McGregor vs. The Allegheny Steam Laundry, and reasons filed.

Following is the trial list for to-day:

No. 12. Young & Co. vs. White.
No. 23. Schmidt vs. Bauer.
No. 25. Wm. Robinson, Administrator vs. Pittsburgh, Allegheny & Manchester Railway Co.
No. 27. Spithers vs. Hope.

EDUCATIONAL.

Pittsburgh Female College.

The grand finale of the commencement exercises of this well managed popular institution took place last night in the College Chapel. At an early hour the spacious room was filled to overflowing with an intelligent and appreciative audience.

The entertainment commenced with music on the piano, "Variations from Norma," by Misses Endsley and Kimball. The graceful manipulations of these fair ones showed careful training and a degree of perfection rarely attained by pupils of their age. Prayer was then offered by Rev. John McMillan, of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, after which Miss Sevilla F. Benney performed "Hexameron" in fine style and much to the delight of the audience. The Salutatory, "Heads—Hands," was then delivered by Miss M. Augusta Mitchell, of Harrisburg, Pa., followed with a song—"The Alpine Morning"—by Misses Cora Brown and Kimball. This song was rendered in fine style. Miss Louise P. N. Howard, of Allegheny city, read an essay entitled "Beautiful Women." At the close of the reading of the essay, Prof. Blessner, and one of his pupils, Miss Cunningham, rendered "Galop—Camillo" with exquisite touch. This piece is one of the many composed by Prof. Blessner.

By request, Miss Kimball sung a piece which had elicited so much admiration and applause on Wednesday evening. The order of the exercises was resumed by Miss Eliza C. Myers, of Pittsburgh, who had given the Latin Salutatory the previous evening with such grace, by her reading an essay enitled "The Keystone of the Mind." Miss Emma P. Sawyer, daughter of Porter Sawyer, formerly of city, sung beautifully "Glannetta," at the close of which, she was greeted with much applause. The closing essay—"My Booth in Vanity Fair," with Valedictory Address, a brilliant effort, was read by Miss Mary E. Radcliff of Pittsburgh, followed by "The Prayer of Moses," by Miss Anna Endsley, and daughter of Rev. A. J. Endsley, Presiding Elder of Pittsburgh District, M. E. Church. Miss Endsley has rare musical talents, as her performances clearly indicate.

It is such an extremely delicate duty to note individual performers, and lest we may make invidious distinctions, we prefer to group the essay readers together. Widely different as the subjects were, each one of the fair essayists presented her respective theme in excellent language, well constructed and exhibiting thought and well disciplined minds. The ease and grace of the fair readers, modest bearing, and well modulated voices deserve commendation.

Rev. Charles A. Dickey, pastor of the Fourth United Presbyterian Church, Allegheny, delivered an address to the graduates, replete with well chosen words and well adapted to the occasion. The remarks of the reverend speaker were listened to with marked attention, and elicited much commendation. Throughout there was an elevated moral tone, worthy of the high functions of a Minister. At the close of the address Miss Cora Brown sung "The Swiss Girl's Dream," one of Prof. Blessner's compositions, in a charming manner.

President Pershing then conferred the Degrees upon the lady graduates, with the usual formula, as follows: Eliza C. Myers, Louisa P. N. Howard, Ida M. McKnight, M. Caradori, A. Fisher, and Mary E. Radcliff, Classical graduates, and Sevilla F. Benney, M. Augusta Mitchell, and Maggie M. Whitesell, English graduates.

At the close, Prof. Blessner and Mrs. Blessner performed "Homeward," composed by the Professor, with signal ability of touch and execution. The musical department during the past year, under the direction of Prof. Blessner, assisted by his wife, and Miss Ernest, and Miss Cora Brown, of the vocal department, has been a grand ovation throughout, establishing the character of the Professor as an artist of superior merit. The grand Chickering piano used at the different public performances during Commencement Week, which called out so much praise for its beauty of tone, was kindly furnished for the occasion by the Messrs. Chickering, of Boston, through their agent in this city, Mr. Charles C. Mellor, on Wood street.

After "Homeward" was performed, President Pershing presented the "Holmes Prize" to Miss Eliza C. Myers, of Pittsburgh, a copy of "Shakespere's Poetical Works," for superior excellence in the Latin language. The English essay "The Keystone of the Mind," of this young lady, was a superior composition. Miss Ettie Purviance was presented with the "Poetical Works of Walter Scott," being the Mrs. Bishop Simpson Prize for Mathematical proficiency.

We note with pleasure in closing the account of the commencement exercises, that much praise is due to President Pershing for the high tone this College has obtained, and we regard it as an honor to our city, believing it equal to any Female College in the country. The year has been a brilliant success and closes with a brighter future than ever before in its history. The next term commences September 2d.

Commencement Exercises of the Bishop Bowman Institute.

The commencement exercises of this popular institution took place yesterday morning at half-past ten o'clock in St. Peter's Episcopal Church, Grant street.

There was quite a good attendance of the friends of education, among whom we noticed a number of clergymen of the city.

The exercises were commenced by repeating the Lord's Prayer and chanting the Venite.

Rev. Mr. Ten Broeck, who had been appointed to deliver the annual address, being absent on account of sickness, Bishop Kerfoot occupied his place, making an excellent and very appropriate address of about half an hour's length.

Another hymn was sung, after which Rev. R. J. Coster presented the following prizes:

1. Trinity Church gold medal given to graduate highest in scholarship and conduct—Miss Grace A. Gormly, Pittsburgh.
2. Bishop's First prize in Senior Department—Miss Gertrude Ringwalt, Pittsburgh.

Bishop's prize in Primary Department—Miss Fanny Palmer, Allegheny City.

After the conclusion of the presentation, Bishop Kerfoot conferred the Diplomas on the Graduating Class, consisting of Miss Grace Adile Gormly, Pittsburgh; Annie Guthrei, Oakland; Bertha Von Bonhorst, Chartiers Creek; Rachel Dohrman, Pittsburgh.

This part of the exercises was rendered very beautiful and impressive by the class all kneeling in front of the altar while the Bishop pronounced his blessing upon them. The entertainment was finally closed, and the audience dismissed with prayer and benediction by the Bishop.

Alumni Meeting.

The Alumni Association of the Western University held their usual annual meeting last evening, at the University Hall, James W. Murray in the chair, and J. K. Wightman Secretary. After disposing of the regular business, the best method of uniting the members of the Alumni was considered, and it was finally concluded to appoint a committee to prepare a complete catalogue of the graduates of the Institution,—by no means an easy task, as a great number of the records were destroyed by fire. It was further resolved to hold meetings semi-annually, instead of annually as heretofore. The next meeting will be held in December, when Hon. Joseph Buffingtoh, of Kittanning, is expected to deliver the address. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President—James W, Murray; Vice Presidents—John R. Wightman, C. C. Montooth; Corresponding Secretary—John C. Newmyer; Recording Secretary—Wm. J. Sawyer; Treasurer—E. D. Graff. Adjourned to meet at the call of the President,

EVIDENCES OF SUCCESS.

Testimonial from Hon. John Covode, Member of Congress.

WASHINGTON, D. C. June 12, 1861.

For more than a year I suffered inconvenience from a constant sounding in my left ear. On the 21st of May I applied for Relief to Dr. E. S. Aborn, at 134 Smithfield street, Pittsburgh. He relieved me at once, and from that day to this I have had no difficulty of any kind. Truly,

JOHN COVODE.

Sight Restored.

S. P. COATES of Allegheny City, called on Dr. Aborn—totally blind for two years—after one week's treatment was able to read the newspaper.

Consumption Entirely Cured,

Miss DONNELLY, of Bayardstown, was one year ago confined to bed with Consumption, given up to die by her attending Physicians. Under Dr. Aborn's treatment she has entirely recovered, and is now a hale, hearty woman.

Deafness Cured.

W. WAGNER, Esq., Cashier of National Bank, Morgantown, West Virginia, called on Dr. Aborn nearly two years ago for Deafness, and in a few months time his hearing was perfectly restored, and still remains perfect.

Remarkable Cure of Chronic Catarrh—Diminished in Weight 30 Pounds—Under Dr. Aborn's Treatment the Patient has Gained 33 Pounds.

R T. KECK, Esq., of Clarion county, Pa., afflicted for fourteen (14) years with Chronic Catarrh, has recovered from the loathsome disease under Dr. Aborn's treatment, and gained 33 pounds. Testified to by Dr. R. B. Brown, of Troy, Jefferson county, Pa.

Another Evidence of Skill.

G. M. WOOLSEY, of Gray's Landing, Pa., a very wealthy and respected old gentleman of some fifty years' experience in this world, called at our sanctum yesterday to contribute his certificate to the skill and ability of Dr. E. S. Aborn, the well known Surgeon and Physician. Mr. Woolsey has been suffering during the past fourteen years with a painful any annoying Tumor on the left arm, and being advised of Dr. Aborn's professional merits, called on him yesterday for treatment. To use the old gentleman's own language, "the Tumor was removed in two seconds without any pain and no hemorrhage ensuing." This was a skillful and scientific operation, and will take its place in the volume of cures approaching miracles which have marked Dr. Aborn's professional career.—Gazette, June 9, 1868.

A Marvellous Cure.

Mr. T. McEVOY, a very worthy young man employed at Moorhead's Rolling Mill, called at our sanctum last evening to communicate for the benefit of the afflicted a marvellous cure effected on him by Dr. E. S. Aborn, the well known Surgeon and Oculist. Nineteen years ago, when a mere child, four years age, Mr. McEvoy was afflicted with that loathsome disease, the small pox. As a dreg he was bequeathed by the dreadful scourge an opacity, or white spot, which grew entirely over the pupil of his left eye, completely destroying its sight. Hearing of Dr. Aborn's skill he repaired to his office some two months ago and placed himself under his treatment. Last night he expressed himself to us as effectually and entirely cured, and could now see with an eye which had been totally blind, unable to discriminate light from darkness for over nineteen years. The cure was remarkable, but it may be regarded only as another link in the great chain of evidence of Dr. Aborn's skill and ability, as an Oculist and Surgeon.—Gazette, June 10, 1861.

Success the Test of Merit.

Of all the standards for testing merit, none is more reliable than success. Success in art, in science and in business of every nature implies merit, and the greater the success the more extraordinary the merit. These reflections are occasioned by witnessing the remarkable success attending the peculiar treatment of specific diseases by the eminent Physician and Surgeon, Dr. E. S. Aborn. A visit to his handsomely furnished apartments at No. 134 Smithfield street, the ante-room of which is filled almost constantly by patients, will furnish proof that his mode of treatment is not only popular, but that it is peculiarly efficacious.

The Doctor's skill in getting speedily at the diagnosis of a disease, and the confident manner in which he treats his patients, unmistakably indicate that he is a scientific and experienced practitioner. His pretensions are backed by solid acquirements, and the volume of certificates of his skill, acquired during his short residence in this city of nearly one year, is sufficiently potential to prove him an able and accomplished Physician and Surgeon. Few if any men in his profession have been so uniformly successful in their practice. He has treated with marked success several obstinate cases of gentlemen connected with this office, whose testimony is already before the public, and may be relied upon. The testimony in favor of his mode of treatment for diseases of the eye, ear, catarrh and affections of the throat and chest, is so overwhelming that all that may follow will only be cumulative. His reputation here, where he intends to make his permanent residence, is sufficiently established, and it is extending rapidly to remote towns and cities, as is evidenced by the arrival of a large number of patients from a distance. In another column will be found a number of certificates that speak for themselves, and much more to the purpose than anything we could write.—Commercial, Sept. 8, [illegible]

Scientific Success.

To cure every disease in the long list of maladies to which human flesh is heir, is an impossible thing, but there are in the higher walks of professional life those who can master most afflictions included in the category. There are men who have devoted themselves exclusively to science, given up the best portions of their lives to the careful study of the human frame, the functions of its various organs, their proneness to attack and ability to re-act under the influence of agents assisting nature. They know every bone, muscle, nerve and sinew of the body, and before the application of their knowledge most forms of disease must disappear. To such a class belongs Dr. E. S. Aborn, whose office is at No. 134 Smithfield street. During the past two years he has been in our midst enjoying a highly successful and lucrative practice, moving and recognized in our first circles of society as a bright ornament to his profession. He has been particularly successful in the treatment of disease, especially the affections of the eye, ear, throat and lungs, and is worthy the large share of patronage directed towards him.

Noiseless Sewing Machines.

We earnestly advise our readers to call and examine Singer's New Noiseless Sewing Machine as the latest and most perfect in the market. It is remarkable for its quietness, speed, lightness in running, ease of management, and simplicity of construction.

It is entirely different from Singer's old machine. The tension is self-adjusting, and the feed is so perfect that the operator does not have to hold the work stretched to prevent puckering, even when sewing the finest Swiss or Nainsook.

The hammer is such a novel of perfection that it will make any width of hem, and fell in the most beautiful manner with less skill than is required to sew a straight seam on any other machine. All the attachments of this machine are the latest and most perfect. Do not be influenced by agents of rival machines, who, by misrepresentations, try to prevent customers from examining this machine, knowing their own will not stand comparison. Straw & Morton, corner of Penn and St. Clair streets, will take pleasure in showing the machines to all who may call. Prices and terms to suit everybody.

City Mortality.

Testimonial from Hon. John Covode, Member of Congress.

For more than a year I suffered inconvenience from a constant sounding in my left ear. On the 21st of May I applied to Dr. E. S. Aborn, at 134 Smithfield street, Pittsburgh. He relieved me at once, and from that day to this I have had no difficulty of any kind. Truly,

6td-1tw. JOHN COVODE.

Allegheny Avenue and Bidwell Street Property.—A large and magnificent property in Allegheny city is advertised for public sale to-morrow (Saturday) morning. It is seated near to Western Avenue, and extends through from Bidwell street to Allegheny avenue. The beautiful villas and elegant improvements of this neighborhood make it one of the most desirable for residence in either of the twin cities. The cars from St. Clair street pass by the property. The size, situation and surroundings of this property invite for it the attention of those who wish to secure a particularly handsome and valuable site. See McIlwaine's auction advertisement in our columns.

Sharpsburg Festival.—The strawberry festival of the Methodist Sabbath School of Sharpsburg, has proven a grand success thus far both in point of attraction and attendance. It will be continued to-night and probably to morrow evening, at the Public School House. The room has been very handsomely decorated with floral ornaments and fine paintings. The very best of Knox's delicious strawberries are served with ice cream, and the tables are groaning with cakes and confectionaries. A delightful time may be anticipated by all who attend.

Patent Notice.—In our advertising columns we publish the formal patent notice of Messrs. Wm. T. and Richard B. Davis, warning all persons against violating their rights to the improvement in puddling furnaces, whether said violation be in the form of "bashes" or the use of cold "fix." The attention to this notice may save future cost and trouble.

To Housekeepers.—As the time of year has arrived for putting up fruit, we advise you to go to Boyts & Ogden, No. 23 Wood street, and buy your fruit preservers. They sell all the best patents, and all kinds of glass jars for fruit. Give them a call and you will find the best as well as the cheapest at this house. Remember, No. 23 Wood street.

Mr. T. R. Hann, the author of the brilliant and successful historical drama of the "Last Ditch, or the Great Rebellion," takes a benefit at the Opera House to-night, on which occasion the piece will be presented in exceedingly brilliant style. We trust there will be a large attendance.

Fruit Jars.—Messrs. Boyts & Ogden, No. 23 Wood street, keep a complete assortment of all kinds of glass jars for fruits. They sell them cheap and warrant them to be the best.

Fruit Jars.—The celebrated Fruit Jars "All Right," "Union," and all kinds can be had at Boyts & Ogden's, No, 23 Wood street. They keep the best and sell the lowest.

Miss Anna Eberle, (Mrs. Joseph Sefton), takes a benefit to-night at the Pittsburgh Theatre. A great bill is offered and we hope to see the house crowded.
